Will Lay Cornerstone Of New St. Paul's Church, Biglerville On Sunday

The cornerstone for the new St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Biglerville, will be laid at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. Francis Reinberger, Elizabeth Graff professor of practical theology at the Lutheran seminary, will deliver the address.

Three choirs will lead the congregation and guests from the old church to the chancel area of the new edifice, where Rev. Marlin Bottiger will extend greetings from the Central Pennsylvania Synod. Rev. Norman J. Wilson, pastor, and Rev. Dr. Henry Sternat, a former pastor, will participate in further ceremonies.

Following Rev. Reinberger's address the congregation will move to the front for the cornerstone laying.

AT FIRST SERVICE

For future generations, a number of articles will be sealed in a copper box and placed in the stone. Items include a Bible, program for the cornerstone service; photographs of the groundbreaking service, the old church building, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Sternat, Rev. and Mrs. Wilson and family, current newspaper accounts including pictures of Rev. Reinberger and James Sillik.

Mr. Sillik, 92, was present for the laying of the cornerstone of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in the summer of 1881. He was nine years old. In his bare feet and wearing overalls, he recalls, he attended the event with his family.

"CLEAR AND COOL"

The weather was clear and cool as a "nice-sized crowd" gathered for the event. Bill Diehl, a mason, aided in placing the stone.

Lewis Fohl, Sillik's uncle, was head carpenter and construction boss for the building which, at the time, seemed extremely large for the size of the community. As far as Mr. Sillik can remember, there were only 10 homes in Biglerville at that time. There were other buildings, Dr. Smith's office; Mr. Bigler's warehouse, now Biglerville Warehouse; Sam Bower's Blacksmith Shop, now the F. M. Weigle property on the

SEMINARY TO HOST FACULTY, WIVES, MT. AIRY

Faculty members of the Mt. Airy Lutheran Seminary, Philadelphia, and their wives, will be guests of the faculty members of the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary on October 3, it was announced today by Dr. Donald R. Heiges, president of both seminaries.

The event will inaugurate what is expected to be a close relationship between both seminaries as a result of the election of Dr. Heiges as president of both schools.

During the visit of the Mt. Airy group, in addition to the social fellowship, Rev. Dr. William E. Lazareth, professor of Systematic Theology and Administrative Dean of the Philadelphia Seminary, will report to the joint faculties on the meeting of the Committee on Faith and Order of the World Council of Churches, of which he is a member. The Council met during the summer at Aarhus, Denmark.

SERIES OF VISITS

The visit of the Philadelphia faculty to Gettysburg is the first in a series of visits planned between Gettysburg and Philadelphia. Besides visits on the part of faculty members, similar events on the part of the student bodies of both seminaries are also planned.

It is also anticipated that an exchange of chapel preachers will be made from time to time. Dean Herbert W. Stroup of the local Seminary, has been invited to preach at the Philadelphia Seminary in the near future, and plans are being made for other exchanges.

BREAKS KNEE CAP

FASHION KEYS ARE GIVEN TO HOMEMAKERS

The fall program for Adams County Homemakers got underway Wednesday with a program on "Designing Women" held for leaders of the various homemakers' groups at the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

Miss Ruth Ann Nine, Pennsylvania State University clothing specialist, gave the talk entitled "Designing Women," in which she outlined "keys" to design and line in the selection of ready-to-wear dresses and patterns. Four "keys" to "fashion figures" were listed as "balance, proportion, emphasis and rhythm." The leaders will later hold similar programs in their own clubs.

Among the leaders present Wednesday were Mrs. Richard Slaybaugh and Mrs. Jay Hartzell, Arendtsville; Mrs. Clarence Waybright and Mrs. Grover Yingling, Barlow; Mrs. Glenn Crover, Barlow; Mrs. Leroy Routsong, Butler Twp.; Mrs. Walter Keeney, Cash-town; Mrs. James Groff, Conewago; Mrs. Horace Waybright and Mrs. C. A. Meyerhoffer, Mt. Joy; Mrs. James Garland, Mt. Pleasant; and Mrs. Raymond Leer and Mrs. Carroll Slothour, York Springs.

PLAN MORE SESSIONS

Other leader training programs scheduled by extension include "Batter Breads" and "Handicraft Jewelry," listed for October 9, and two sessions in the spring. "Fruit: A Treasurer's Chart of Health," and "Backyard

Given 30 Days For Disorderly Conduct

Two men were placed in the Adams County jail Wednesday.

Freddie Altice, 33, Aspers, was jailed on a disorderly conduct charge brought before Justice of the Peace John O. Whitman after Altice allegedly caused a disturbance at the county home.

When he was taken before Justice Whitman for a hearing this morning, Altice pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs. In default of payment of the sum, he was sent to jail for 30 days.

Amegelo Martins Contiango, 29, Harrisburg, was placed in jail on a reckless driving charge brought by state police before Justice of the Peace Frederic Griest Jr., Flora Dale.

DEMS NAME 20 TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Adams County's Democratic Committee formally opened its campaign headquarters in the Epley building, corner of S. Washington and Chambersburg Sts. Wednesday night following a meeting at the courthouse at which an executive committee was announced, plans made for a dinner in Littlestown, and four candidates were heard.

R. L. Pittenturf, York Springs, state Democratic committeeman, presided at the meeting as acting county chairman. County Chairman Fred G. Klunk said he had asked Pittenturf to serve in his stead until after the election because Klunk is a candidate for assemblyman.

Named as the executive committee were: Chairman Klunk, Vice Chairman Mrs. Marie J. Harbaugh; Treasurer George W. Taughnbaugh; state committeeman R. L. Pittenturf; Secretary M. G. Miller; Joseph R. Adams, McSherrystown; Francis A. Althoff, Gettysburg; Kenneth J. Cole, president of the Young Democrats, Gettysburg; George E. Kane, Biglerville R. D.; Lawrence E. Moul, Hampton; William G. Sentz Jr., Gettysburg R. D.; Edward F. Smith, Gettysburg R. D.; Mrs. Evelyn Staveley, Littlestown; George P. Steinberger, Fairfield R. D.; Robert L. Gebhart, Hanover R. D.; J. Walter Kugler, Fairfield R. D.; Gilbert Lupp, Gettysburg; John Phillips, East Berlin; Robert Stoniesifer, Littlestown and Charles F. Rinehart, New Oxford R. D.

SEEK VOLUNTEERS

Gilbert Lupp, in addition to speaking as a candidate for state Senate, asked volunteers to staff the Democratic headquarters in the Epley building. Plans call for the office to be open from noon to 10 o'clock each night starting Saturday and continuing until November 3. Volunteers are sought for the following periods, 12 to 3, 3 to 6, 6 to 8, and 8 to 10.

Klunk reported that former Governor George Leader has accepted an invitation to speak at a Democratic dinner, October 22 at Bankert's in Littlestown. Miss Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senate has also accepted an invitation to speak. A total of 1,000 tickets for the affair were distributed. George Lambert, ticket chairman, said returns can be made to him at his office along the Taneytown Rd., at Round Top at any time. Mrs. Marie Harbaugh reported that Rev. Fr. Louis Forgeng and Rev. Charles Held will give the

LECTURER AND AIDE WILL RUN COOK SCHOOL

The smoothness with which the sessions of "Foodtime U. S. A.," the theme of this year's cooking school sponsored by The Gettysburg Times, the Metropolitan Edison Company and the National Livestock and Meat Board, are run and the ease and dispatch with which one dish after another is prepared in the program is the result of good teamwork between the lecturer Miss Anne Norman, and her alert assistant, Miss Sandra Sime.

Miss Sime is the human dynamo who keeps things running efficiently behind the scenes while Miss Norman is busy before the audience preparing roasts, stews, chops, pies, cakes and salads. Sometimes, as the audience sees, she is at Miss Norman's elbow, ready to place a completed dish in the oven or bring the ingredients for the next one.

A native of Rockwell City, Ia., Miss Sime was graduated from Iowa State University, Ames, where she received her degree in home economics education. Before joining the Meat Board's Homemakers' Service Department, Miss Sime held positions in radio and television broadcasting in Iowa, including programs for homemakers.

FOX ELECTED TO YWCA BD.

James Fox, Baltimore St., a founder of the Gettysburg Youth Center and currently associate advisor of the Explorer Post sponsored by St. James Lutheran Church, was elected to membership in the board of directors of the Adams County YMCA at its fall meeting in the Lamp Post Tea Room Wednesday evening.

Robert Delasin, state director for Adams County, met at the session with these directors: President Richard Waybright, Luther Byers, Rev. John Bishop, C. P. Keefer, Dr. Howard Bream and Walter B. Lane.

President Waybright reported 55 boys attended the summer day camp held for two sessions last July. Programs and plans were discussed for next summer's encampment. Rev. Bishop and Lane were asked to contact service and fraternal groups to seek their sponsorship for boys who may wish to attend the camp and are not financially able to pay for the outing.

Countian Inducted And 29 Get Exams

One Adams County man was inducted into the armed forces today but the county Selective Service Board sent 29 others for final physical examinations this morning. The trip to Harrisburg was made by chartered bus, leaving about 7 a.m.

The inductee was Owen Lee Miller. This morning the Draft Board office received instructions to call three men for induction on October 26. No orders were included for the October call for final physical examinations.

HERE AND THERE

The Visiting Nurse is one of the unsung heroines of a community, administering to the ills of many sick and infirmed men, women, and children in the community.

Through the Civic Nursing Association, the Visiting Nurse is on call five days a week for home service to the sick of the immediate Gettysburg area served by United Fund. She gives professional service on instruction from the patient's physician and hypodermics, therapy, and home service at the request of the patient.

Most of the 250 calls made in 1963 by Mrs. Charles Smith, local visiting nurse, were paid by the individual patients at the rate of $1 to $2 each, depending upon the (Continued On Page 3)

SUPPER BEGINS YEAR FOR AAUW ON WEDNESDAY

One hundred seventy members and guests attended the first meeting of the Gettysburg branch of the American Association of University Women Wednesday evening at the Eisenhower School.

Tables for the covered dish supper were decorated with mortboards, college catalogs, textbooks and ivy. Flowers in mugs bearing college and fraternity insignia completed the decorations which reflected the theme "Expectations for Education," one of the topics to be considered by the group this year.

Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, parliamentarian, offered the invocation, Mrs. James D. Sheen, president, welcomed the group. During the business meeting, chairmen of study groups ex-

Public Accommodations Section Of Civil Rights Act Declared Unconstitutional As Applied To A Restaurant In Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A three-judge federal panel today ruled that the public accommodations section of the Civil Rights Act is unconstitutional as applied to a Birmingham restaurant.

The judges, who expressed their concern over the spread of congressional powers, issued a temporary restraining order against acting U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach, prohibiting him from enforcing the act. In Washington, a Justice Department spokesman said the department will appeal the decision to the Supreme Court. He said it will ask a stay of the restraining order granted by the three-judge court, pending disposition of the case by the high court.

PAIR GIVEN FOUR MONTHS FOR ASSAULT

Harry Charles Gandy, 32, Attmore, Ala., and Clyde Reed, 32, Reddick, Fla., were sentenced by the Adams County court this morning to from four to eight months each in the county jail on charges of aggravated assault and battery.

Both entered pleas of guilty to the charges stemming from a shooting at a labor camp on Orrtanna R.D., Saturday night, August 30. Both have been in prison since and their sentence since and their sentences start from that date.

According to the police report at that time, Gandy, stationed at a labor camp near Chambersburg, had gone to the Orrtanna area camp to "get in a crap game." Later an argument ensued. Reed allegedly secured a pistol and Gandy was shot in the right shoulder. Gandy wrestled the weapon from Reed and at that moment the pistol fired, shooting Willie Williams, 32, of Gainsville, Fla., in the forehead. Williams was discharged from the hospital today.

"LOVES EVERYBODY"

Before the court this morning Reed said that he had "love in his heart for everybody. I don't want to hurt nobody." He said that the pistol went off during a struggle with Gandy.

A motion before the court to suppress evidence in the charge of bookmaking and pooling against Amelia Agnes Liversberger, East Berlin, was withdrawn by her attorneys who said that new evidence has been brought to their attention. The matter is now ready to go to trial the attorneys said.

Approval was given by the court this morning to pay for an interpreter in a recent case involving a migrant.

William Myers, Charlottesville, Va., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman, Cash-town. Mrs. Sherman is convalescing from a heart attack.

Municipal Authority Asks Townfolk To Save Water As Supply Reaches Danger Point

COLLEGE OPENS WITH ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT

"This year is one of particular significance for this college," Dr. C. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, declared in his address at the opening convocation at the college today at 11 a.m. in the Student Union Building.

An academic procession marched into the building for the convocation at which the college band played. Rev. John W. Vandershall, college chaplain, delivered the invocation.

"On previous occasions and in other settings, he continued, "we have shared in discussions about the studies, the plans and the dreams having to do with the future of this college. It is accepted that self study is a continuous process in educational institutions, but it is also recognized that a time does come for the precipitation of judgment and decision. We are now engaged in making those decisions and, thus, within the year we will issue a document which will speak to those characteristics which the institution will bear in the future."

SUBJECT TO GROWTH

"The importance of this document is more easily recognized if one recalls that in the last 20 years this college has been subject to unusual growth and significant change. Moreover, the national setting for these changes has been one which posed enormous demands and responsibilities for institutions of higher education. We assume that the future will be no less demanding, and consequently we feel that we must know what we choose to accomplish and how we may succeed in that choice."

Dr. Hanson then went on to discuss political and other national matters. "The next six weeks," (Continued On Page 3)

The Gettysburg Municipal Authority this morning in recognition of the lengthy drought and the lack of forecasts of rainfall in the immediate future, asked the people of Gettysburg to conserve water supplies.

C. F. March, vice president of municipal management, which operates the water system for the authority, told the board that the "situation is not critical at the moment, but we think the time has come to ask the cooperation of the town's residents in conserving water in case the present dry weather continues as is anticipated."

He added that the supplies of water have now reached "the danger point" and continuation of the drought plus continuation of use of the usual amount of water could cause a water shortage. "However, we should be all right if people save water."

POPULATION JUMPS

The Municipal Authority well at the water works is already being used to augment the supply from Marsh Creek. The addition of "about 2,000 college students to the borough population today increases use of supplies on hand."

If the drought continues, wells owned by the water system on Steinhewer Ave. can be tapped. And in addition, if need be, additional wells in the community can probably be employed. At their emergency meeting this morning the board members authorized Municipal Management to purchase such supplies as are need without asking bids should it be necessary to tap into wells other than the authority's own.

DECLARE EMERGENCY

The resolution by the Municipal Authority this morning was as follows:

"Whereas, the supply of water available for the use of the citizens of Gettysburg and vicinity through the facilities of Gettysburg Municipal Authority has been reduced to the danger point and has created an emergency situation, and

Seek To Have Adams Co. Designated As Disaster Area Because Of Drought

The Adams County Disaster Committee, made up of heads of various farms-connected federal and state agencies in the county, has petitioned the state that the county again be named a drought-disaster area.

At a meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in the Adams Electric Cooperative Building the board filled out papers for submission to Governor Scranton asking that the county be included among those forwarded to the federal government as needing aid—particularly feed grain assistance through the coming winter, because of the long summer drought.

BLOOD DONORS

The blood donor list from the Warner Hospital for the last week includes Charles Bridinger, Mrs. Grace Rose and Garnet Brown, Littlestown; Allen Bouey, Allen Sanders, Albert McCreaf, Emmitsburg; Roy McGlaughlin, Fairfield; Mrs. Curvin Mickle, Orrtanna R. D.; George Olinoff, John Bollinger, Norman Tinanoff, Robert G. Bishop, Charlotte Tate and John O'Brien, Gettysburg; Ralph McGlaughlin, Biglerville, and Robert Belcher, Arendtsville.

Supplies of forage on hand at the present time are no higher now than they were a year ago when the county was included in the drought disaster list, reports at the meeting showed. May was the driest month here in more than 60 years; June was the driest in 10 years. As a result supplies of hay and corn are described as "critical." A number of farmers replanted corn, but the agriculture officials fear frost Monday may have prevented at least some of the late planted corn from reaching the ear stage.

WOULD GET SURPLUSES

Control of alfalfa weevil was also reported "less effective" this summer than last, thus cutting further into forage supplies.

If the county is approved as a drought disaster area then farmers will be able, as they have the last two years, to purchase certain surplus feed supplies for their herds at reduced prices during the winter and early spring.

In its discussion the board expressed the belief that the county's bumper apple harvest will be smaller than anticipated because the drought "will produce smaller apples." But the quality of the fruit was described as "excellent."

IN OTHER CAPACITIES
The board also met to perform two of its other functions as well. As the Technical Action Panel it heard a report by George B. Inskip, assistant county superintendent of schools, on the educational television station being developed for this section. Inskip said he had been told that during hours the station is not in use for school purposes, time will be available for education programs by the Extension Service Soil Conservation Service, etc.

IN VIOLATION

"We conclude that Title 11 of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as applied to the business operated by these plaintiffs, was beyond the competence of Congress to enact and that its enforcement against plaintiffs under the circumstances of this could be violative of the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, in part reading: "No person shall be x x x deprived of x x x liberty, or property, without due process of law; x x x accordingly, they are entitled to the relief for which they pray."

Decisions of three-judge panels may be appealed directly to the high tribunal.

The ruling did not state if the panel considered the public accommodations section unconstitutional as applied to all restaurants. The wording in a key paragraph, the last one read:

CLOSED BUSINESS
Atlanta restaurant owner Lester Maddox has appealed that decision to the U.S. Supreme Court. He closed his business rather than integrate it.

WALLACE TO GET CONTROL OF SCHOOLS

By HARVEY BREUSCHER
MILWAUKEE (AP) — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace said today that he will call a special session of his state legislature Monday to enact laws that will "return complete control of our school system to the state government."

Wallace said he hoped the action would "start a move and set a pattern that will be followed across the land."

The Alabama governor, appearing in the state which gave him 266,000 votes for president in the April primary, said it was "entirely possible for states to pass legislation that will keep the federal government from running our schools."

He said he would detail the plan in his message to the legislature. And he predicted that the special session would be concluded in a single day.

Wallace made his statements at a Milwaukee news conference before leaving for an appearance at Neenah, in the Fox River Valley, where he drew heavy support during his primary campaign against Democratic Gov. John W. Reynolds, running as a favorite son in place of President Johnson. Reynolds polled 522,000 votes and claimed all of the state's national convention delegates for Johnson.

Wallace will return to Milwaukee for a public address tonight.

C. E. SHORB, 80, DIES SUDDENLY

Charles Edward Shorb, 80, Emmitsburg carpenter, was found dead in bed at his home, 211 N. Seton Ave., there this morning. He had been in declining health for some time.

He was a native of Carroll County, Md., but had lived most of his life in the Emmitsburg community. He was a son of the late Daniel T. and Henrietta (Miller) Shorb. He was associated with the Elias Lutheran Church at Emmitsburg, was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America of Frederick and was a social member of the American Legion.

Surviving are his wife, the former Rose McClear; six children, Charles B., Emmitsburg; Andrew T., Fairfield R. 2, Clarence I. Shorb and Mrs. Roger Zurgable, both of Emmitsburg; Mrs. Jarry Jones, Northfield, N.J., and Robert E., Emmitsburg. There are 18 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Two sisters also survive: Mrs. Emma Krieger, Baltimore, and Mrs. Catherine Gallagher of Ohio.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Wilson Funeral Home in Emmitsburg with interment in the Mountainview Cemetery at Emmitsburg. Friends may call Saturday evening after 7 o'clock at the funeral home.

Youth Fellowships Will Meet Sunday

The Youth Fellowships of the churches of the Fairfield area have been invited to a joint meeting at Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church at 7 o'clock Sunday evening as part of the plan of the ministerium of the Fairfield area to hold quarterly meetings throughout the year.

Dr. James H. Hammett, Fairfield, will speak on "Boy-Girl Relationships" and there will be a question and answer period. A social hour will be conducted by the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Youth Fellowship.

Miss Betsy Neely will be the devotional leader and Fred Schartz will be in charge of the social period. All teen-agers in the area are invited, including those in junior high school.

WOULD ADD DEFENDANT

Guy A. Herring, Arendtsville, has filed papers in the prothonotary's office to have Harold M. Steiner, Gettysburg R. 2, named as an additional defendant in the trespass suit brought against Herring by Charles G. Naylor Sr., Biglerville R. 1, administrator of the estate of Ronald G. Naylor, deceased.

Naylor brought the suit as the result of an accident August 5, 1963, in Arendtsville. Ronald G. Naylor at that time was riding a motorcycle and was fatally injured when the motorcycle and a pickup truck operated by Herring collided.

According to the complaint of Herring against Steiner, as filed by Attorney Richard A. Brown, Herring claims Steiner was the "solely responsible" for the accident because Steiner was backing his car over the center line of the street at the fruit research laboratory in Arendtsville and "obscured the vision of Ronald G. Naylor."

According to the original complaint, Herring was making a left turn in his pickup truck when the accident occurred.

AUXILIARY PLANS COSTUME PARTY

Plans for a costume Halloween party October 12 were discussed at a meeting of the Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Company Monday evening at Recreation Field.

Mrs. David Baker, president, appointed Mrs. William Gallagher, a past president, as chairman of the nominating committee, with Mrs. Ray B. Breighner, also a past president, as co-chairman. Other past presidents of the auxiliary will be the members of the committee.

The group decided to meet the next two months at the Adams Electric Cooperative Building, rear of N. Stratton St.

The ways and means committee was named to arrange for participation by the auxiliary in the Halloween parade. Preliminary plans for a Christmas party were discussed.

Miss Bonnie Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Smith, 100 W. Broadway, will leave Friday for Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., where she will enter her sophomore year, majoring in languages and foreign service.

Weekend guests of Miss Margaret Howard, E. High St., were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Howard; Miss Sadie Howe, Kansas; Mrs. J. B. Jackson and children, Sue, Mike and Peter, and Miss Bess Robertson, Danville, Pa. Monday guests were Dr. and Mrs. Joel Swartz, Baltimore, Md., and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz, Washington, D.C. Mr. and Mrs. Howard and Miss Howe left for Kansas this morning.

The ways and means committee of the Epsilon Delta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, Shirley Strickhouser, chairman, will sponsor a fashion show at the Gettysburg Country Club Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Fashions from Pitzer's Men's Shop, the Carol Ann Shoppe and the Jack and Jill Shop will be modeled by Fayne Culp, Ann Harner, Linda Hays, Viola May, Carol Reed, Ruth Roland, Joanne Snyder, Shirley Strickhouser, Cherie Anders and Nancy Sneed. A donation of $1 will be accepted at the door.

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard R. Stuckey, Caledonia, have returned from the annual Pennsylvania Tavern Owners' Association convention which was held at Lycoming Hotel, Williamsport. Mr. Stuckey was re-elected for a third term as executive secretary of the association. He also was the winner of the association's golf tournament which was held on the Elm Park golf course.

The Jennie Wade Division of Licensed Practical Nurses met at the home of the president, Mrs. Rhoda Bosserman, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Carolyn Smelser and Mrs. Bosserman were appointed to attend a seminar for LPNs at the Harrisburg Hospital Friday on "Geriatric Nursing." Nine members attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Doyle, Thomasville, were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clair Robert, McKnightstown. Mr. Doyle is a former pupil of Mrs. Robert when she taught a number of years ago in Mt. Pleasant School at Hanover. Mr. and Mrs. Finley A. Lauvon, Preston, Ontario, were guests of the Roberts on Wednesday. Mr. Lauvon is a retired school teacher.

The first fall meeting of the Women's Civic Council will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the American Legion home. Richard L. Smith, safety chairman of the town council, will be the speaker.

Mrs. Lulu Ohler, Steinwehr Ave., is observing her 88th birthday anniversary today.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth P. Mull and family, 37 N. Howard Ave., have returned home after attending the National Phi Sigma Kappa convention in Los Angeles. Hull is alumni advisor of Rho Deltan chapter of Gettysburg College. Their son, Kenneth Jr., is president of Nu chapter at Lehigh University.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ernest Carter, Wolf Hill, are celebrating their 47th wedding anniversary today. Mrs. Carter is also celebrating her birthday anniversary.

At a meeting of the Mothers' Class of St. James Lutheran Sunday School Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Snider, R. 3, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Pauline Crouse; first vice president, Miss Viola Shank; second vice president, Mrs. Paul Pensinger; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Zepp; treasurer, Mrs. Richard Lighter; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Victor Woerner. During the evening members stuffed animals for the Adams County Home. Mrs. Lighter conducted the devotions. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Snider, Mrs. Ivan Breighner and Mrs.

Sites-Smith

Miss Ruby Jane Smith, daughter of Mrs. Celetta Smith, Hagerstown, Md., and Terry Leon Sites, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Robert Sites, Fairfield R. 1, were married recently in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fairfield, where the double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Mahoney. Michael Sites, brother of the groom, was the altar boy. The bride was attended by Mrs. Adeline Harbaugh, aunt of the groom, Miss Barbara Gossard, Cayetown, Md., classmate of the bride and Miss Mary Elaine Harbaugh, cousin of the groom.

Robert Eugene Sites, brother of the groom, served as best man and the ushers were Frederick Lee Smith, Smithsburg, Md., brother of the bride and Timothy Sites, brother of the groom.

A reception was held in the Smithsburg Community Hall. The couple is residing in their newly furnished apartment in Fairfield.

The bride graduated from Smithsburg High School in 1963. The groom graduated from Fairfield High School. Both are employed at the Gettysburg Shoe factory.

Dance Saturday At Youth Center

Plans for a dance Saturday night and continuation of a rummage sale were outlined Wednesday evening at a meeting of the executive committee of the Gettysburg Youth Center at the Center on N. Washington St.

The dance for Junior and Senior High School youths will be held Saturday night at the Center with Wayne Livelsberger, Hanover, as disc jockey. Reports on a similar dance held last Saturday showed "excellent attendance."

With the rummage sale held last Saturday in the basement of the Adams County National Bank proving successful, the decision was made to continue the sale this Saturday at the same place. Persons wishing to donate articles for the sale were asked to leave them at the basement of the bank on Lincoln Square Friday afternoon.

President Craig Swinn presided at the meeting.

Pneumonia Kills Lost Parakeet

This is a note to someone who may have lost a parakeet—it died of pneumonia, but it had a happy home the last hours of its life.

A little blue parakeet was found on the street by Miss Ann Faber Tuesday afternoon about 4:30. She took it home and Mrs. Fred Faber fed it, and placed it in a spare parakeet cage. Its puffed condition indicated pneumonia from its exposure to the elements but it seemed happy and ate Wednesday morning it died suddenly in the cage. Attempts were made, without success, to revive it.

Mrs. Faber said she thought whoever might be looking for the tiny blue bird would like to know what happened to it.

Market Cashier Helps Deliver Seven-Pound Boy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Zenord Holcomb had her baby—a boy. Then the market cashier who helped deliver it did the logical thing: she placed it on the market scales for weighing.

The boy tipped the scales at 7 pounds.

Police said Mrs. Holcomb, 26, was cashing a check at the market Wednesday when labor started. Before police or an ambulance could arrive, the child was on its way, assisted by Dorothy Childs, 29, the cashier.

The child, all weighed and wrapped for delivery, was waiting when police came to take him and his mother to County General Hospital.

FORD, UNION NEAR CRISIS IN WAGE SESSION

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — Contract negotiations between Ford and the United Auto Workers union entered the crisis stage today with a strike deadline only one day away.

Bargainers were prepared to go around the clock if necessary to avoid a walkout of 125,000 UAW members at Ford plants around the nation.

In announcing that a strike deadline had been set for 10 a.m. (EST) Friday, UAW President Walter Reuther told newsmen that the two sides were still far apart on the noneconomic issues of relief time and production standards.

CHRYSLER TROUBLE

There also was disagreement on the question of wage inequities, he said.

Reuther indicated, however, that the union was ready to accept most of Ford's economic offer, which paralleled the settlement reached at Chrysler last week.

Potential strike trouble also was brewing at Chrysler, despite the national agreement covering most of the UAW assembly line workers.

There was still the possibility of a walkout at a few plants where local grievances had not been resolved.

In addition, a strike deadline by 10 a.m. Friday has been set in contract negotiations for some 7,000 white collar workers in office, clerical and engineering jobs.

Last week's Chrysler settlement—which is expected to set the pattern for the entire auto industry—included an early retirement incentive program, longer vacations, added holidays and assumption by the company of all medical and hospitalization insurance payments.

Both Reuther and Ford said they believed there was still time to reach a settlement before the strike deadline Friday morning.

Physical Fitness Stamps In 1965

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postage stamps aimed at helping the fight against cancer and pointing up the need for physical fitness will be issued next year, Postmaster General John A. Gronouski announced today.

Others will commemorate the 150th anniversary of the battle of New Orleans and honor Robert Fulton, the early American inventor, on the 200th anniversary of his birth.

Council Breaks Double Tie Vote

DAPHNE, Ala. (AP) — After two deadlocks by voters, the city council settled the issue.

In a recent primary, Vernon E. Andrews and George H. Rains each received 121 votes for a place on the council. In a runoff Tuesday, the count was again a draw with 144 votes each.

Wednesday night the present members of the council broke the deadlock and elected Rains 4-1.

Cleaning Plant Is Seized By IRS

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Patrons at a laundry and cleaning establishment here were surprised Wednesday when they were waited upon by two Internal Revenue Service agents.

The agency seized the establishment for nonpayment of employee withholding taxes. The agents were on hand to collect for cleaning done and reject new work.

"We get into everything, don't we?" said officer A. W. Pope.

VETS TO MEET

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brown have sold their home in Arendtsville to Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDannell and moved to near Blue Ridge Summit, Waynesboro R. 4, R. 4.

Residents of Arendtsville were asked today to conserve water because of the drought-reduced flow from springs that feed the town reservoir. The request was made by Dale Hartzel, water superintendent, who said the situation has not yet become critical but asked residents to avoid unnecessary use of water such as washing autos, pavements and porches.

Naval Academy Will Get Missouri Mule

HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP) — A Missouri-born mule that changed its residence to Illinois is about to become the mascot of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

West Point's mascot, Hannibal, 1, died last March. The academy's need was relayed to the Hannibal Chamber of Commerce by Lt. Thomas Gallagher of Hannibal.

The chamber had a difficult time locating a Missouri mule, but finally found an animal belonging to Forrest Baucum of Liberty, Ill.

He assured the chamber the mule was Missouri-born.

Barry Is Endorsed By Georgia Paper

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — The Columbus Enquirer endorsed Sen. Barry Goldwater for president today.

The paper said in an editorial: "We have waited patiently—and often despairingly—for an outspoken conservative to mount the rostrum in a presidential race. One stands there now—Barry Goldwater. And the Enquirer stands with him."

The Enquirer has supported the Republican nominee in the last three presidential races after a long record of endorsements of Democratic candidates.

CASTS VOTE AT 105

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Carl Smith walked into the precinct station and signed his name with a firm hand, cast his ballot and walked out with a spray step.

Carl Smith is 105 and probably the oldest voter to cast his ballot in Tuesday's primary.

Federal, state and local governments own 279,000 passenger cars, 154,000 buses and 651,000 trucks.

TRADING HEAVY

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels paced the stock market to a vigorous advance early this afternoon. Trading was the week's heaviest.

Gains of fractions to about a point were made by key stocks. All four top steelmakers touched highs for the year. They shaded initial gains, however.

Glowing economic news accompanied the rise—another record for industrial output, forecasts of unbroken expansion and a rise in retail sales.

There are more than one million truck-trailers registered in the United States.

SALES ABROAD BY U. S. FIRMS SET NEW MARK

NEW YORK (AP)—American corporations are doing a record business overseas, the New York Stock Exchange said today.

Total sales abroad by U.S. manufacturers this year will top $50 billion, reported the exchange in a monthly publication. Of this, at least $34 billion will come from sales of foreign subsidiaries, branches and other operations.

Profits from U.S. private investments abroad increased $4.6 billion last year, raising total U.S. assets overseas to almost $67 billion.

Some American firms, reports the exchange, are watching sales move faster overseas than at home. General Motors, which earned a record $1.5 billion last year, said that while factory sales of cars and trucks at home increased 10 per cent over 1962, sales in Canada rose 15 per cent and sales in other foreign areas climbed 34 per cent.

"SCHOOL CHILDREN'S PRAYER"

Dear Father of all mankind . . . take care of us this day . . . help us to learn our lessons . . . guide us along the way . . . our faiths and races vary . . . but underneath it all . . . our hearts seek consolation . . . please answer every call . . . teach us how to work and play . . . and should some difference arise . . . help us to understand . . . let us respect the teachers . . . who strive to see us through . . . for only in this way can we . . . to ourselves be true . . . dear Father, shower us with love . . . enough for us to share . . . so life holds tender meaning . . . this is the school children's prayer.

The service of the Visiting Nurse is available to anyone requesting it and is not confined to cases under the jurisdiction of other state agencies. Welfare agencies also use the service, but Mrs. Smith reports that in the Gettysburg area nearly all of the patients are private and self-supporting and able to pay the small fee required for her services. She makes daily visits to some patients, and weekly visitations to others requiring limited service.

The Civic Nursing Association will receive $1,050 of the $32,000 goal of United Fund this year to assist in meeting an operating budget of $2,000. The association hopes to build up its service to the community by increased visits to patients needing brief or prolonged nursing assistance.

The visiting nurse also instructs members of the patient's family to administer hypodermics to patients requiring frequent shots. Last year Mrs. Smith made weekly visits to six or eight regular patients on a month-to-month basis, many of whom are invalids. She frequently gives daily care to temporarily ill persons who require home service through recovery.

Her calls are made from 8 a.m. to 12 noon, Monday through Friday, and local persons seeking information on home nursing care may telephone her afterwards at the Civic Nursing Association office, 334-2220.

south side of E. York St.; Andy Cronise's store where the Ward Houck apartments are located on S. Main St., and the Rether Hotel which now houses Lupp's Restaurant.

VESPER SERVICE

Bricks for the church were made and burnt on S. Main St. at the Amos Sillik brickyard. The clay came from a 20-acre field along the Hunterstown Rd. It was hauled by horse and mule teams to Biglerville where it was ground by a "mule-powered" mill.

Other items to be placed in the corner stone Sunday will be New Christian Education Curriculum materials, Luther's Small Catechism, "Adventure in Advancement," a booklet printed in 1900; names and addresses of all church members, a current issue of "The Lutheran," statistics of Biglerville community and its churches, a collection of coins from 1881, 1912, 1939 and 1964; a service book and hymnal, a tape recording of the cornerstone service.

A fellowship hour is planned for 5 to 6 p.m.

Beginning at 6 p.m., vespers service will be conducted under the direction of Rev. Mr. Wilson. His theme will be "Praise the Lord."

COUNTY MAN IS GIVEN MEDAL

A/S John L. Hamm, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Hamm, 213 Main St., McSherrystown, was awarded the Good Conduct Medal while serving with the 8th Ordnance Battalion in Germany.

Specialist Hamm was awarded the medal for exemplary conduct, efficiency and fidelity as a soldier in active service.

Hamm, a personnel specialist in the battalion's Headquarters Detachment near Hanau, entered the Army in October, 1961. He was last assigned at Fort Bliss, Texas. He is a 1957 graduate of Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown.

Thurmond's cross-over was the first in the Senate since Oregon's Wayne Morse switched from the Republican to the Democratic party in 1954.

Thurmond has long been expected to come out for Goldwater with whom he voted against the civil rights bill, the nuclear test-ban treaty and other measures.

FOX ELECTED

James Fox reported on Boy Scout groups that have used the Y day camp site near Natural Dam. He reported Scouts plan to place a flag pole there in the near future, plus 10 new fireplaces.

Delasin outlined results of a recent mail canvass for financial contributions. He also reported on the YMCA junior industrial program to be set up in the high school. The junior industrial program will provide boys with visits to industry at which they can learn the work and employment prospects in various industries.

The next meeting of the board will be held November 18 at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

COLLEGE OPENS

he said, "will witness what promises to be an intensive national political contest. For some who are here present, this is a matter of indifference; for others, it is a matter of passionate concern. It is my personal view and, indeed, my conviction in educational philosophy that college students should be knowledgeable about and interested in the machinery through which this democracy functions. I have no interest in your partisan affiliation, but I am concerned about indifference to the importance of the political process."

MINORITY PERSONS

"This nation is confronted with major questions about the treatment of minority persons," continued Dr. Hanson. "We are not isolated from this matter. Here and elsewhere the resolution will not come easily. Beyond the effects of legislation, mass action and individual challenge, I believe that there must be a resolve which is personal and genuine and permits the open acceptance of one man by another. It is my firm belief that on this campus the treatment of individuals should rest on the assumption that the worth of a person is measured in what his efforts may accomplish and not on factors determined by genetic chance. I should make you aware, moreover, that it is the intention of this college to do all in its power to assure the support of that assumption."

PERSONAL BEHAVIOR

Touching on the question of the conduct of personal behavior, Dr. Hanson went on to say: "We see about us evidence of a contest between the value expectations of society and the conduct of personal behavior. This is not a new phenomenon, but its implications are becoming more apparent to thoughtful persons on college campuses and elsewhere. I draw attention to this contest because it is one in which every person here is inescapably involved. It is, moreover, a struggle which bears on the capacity of the agencies of the student body to exercise responsibilities in the governance of student life. Honor, personal integrity, adherence to reasonable rules of order and respect for personal dignity are characteristics of behavior which must be taken for granted in an institution which is ultimately concerned with the search for and the dissemination of truth. I say this, however, in full recognition that on few campuses can there be found the equal of the responsible which this student body has clearly established. Your honor commission, your student discipline procedures are the object of real pride. The sportsmanship of our teams and countless other examples of individual and group effort by students have created expectations which are basic in Gettysburg's traditions."

INTEREST IN OTHERS

"I would dare to suggest," continued Dr. Hanson, "that there is a service of remarkable importance which the individuals and the organizations of this student body can perform. This service entails a commitment of concern and an interest in others. It is not unnatural, but it does call for conscience and consciousness of others. It possesses, moreover, the potentiality of provoking sensitivity and growth in all who are involved and may even make real a characteristic of this campus which has only been assumed—that it is a campus of genuine friendliness."

Concluding, he commented: "I would hope that in the days ahead there would be increasing evidence that we are alert to and have convictions about those matters which bear on the dignity of man and the welfare of society. By the application of those qualities which permit our association in the enterprise of higher education we justify and sustain our continued existence."

Barbecue Sunday

Paul M. Morelock, president of the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown, has announced that the annual chicken barbecue will be held Sunday on the Taneytown Volunteer Fire Company's carnival grounds. The meal will be served from noon to 6 p.m. General chairman is Howell B. Royer. Proceeds invocation and benediction at the dinner. George Taughinbaugh reported posters will be available. Charles Utz reported progress as entertainment chairman. Kenneth Cole, program chairman, reported plans to sell advertising for the program.

KLUNK SPEAKS

As candidate for assemblyman, Klunk told the group, "I don't have to tell you anything about myself. Certainly you know me by this time. I can only say that I believe I can represent Adams County well at Harrisburg because after all the years I have been in Harrisburg there isn't a door I can't get in."

Lupp said, "This year marks the first opportunity in many years for Adams County to have both an assemblyman and a state senator. I will promise you that if I am elected I will represent all of the people. I have been fortunate enough to travel all over Pennsylvania for four years and I think I know the problems not only of our area, but all of the state."

He urged 10 volunteers for each district to get out the vote, stating: "If we get out 30 per cent of the Democratic vote we will win."

CRALEY SPEAKS

Congressman-candidate Neiman Craley, 36-year-old York County furniture manufacturing company president and a graduate of Gettysburg College, said: "Peace doesn't just happen. It can't be made by weapons. It is made by men, and I for one am not content to risk the security of the nation with the Republican candidate for President. I think the question in this campaign is whether we shall have a realistic program for peace, or whether we shall settle for a trigger-happy Senator from Arizona who may lead us into war. There are many Republicans who have the same fear. The Philadelphia Inquirer last week for the first time in its history came out in support of a Democratic candidate for President. The Inquirer holds that the U. S., the two-party system and world peace cannot survive under the Republican candidate for President. This is pretty harsh talk. They must be much concerned."

"How does this affect my candidacy for Congress? My opponent says that his views and those of Senator Goldwater are identical on many things, including foreign policy. And so I seek to defeat him for the same reason I oppose the Republican candidate for President. In addition my opponent has voted 'no' so many times in Congress that he is being called 'No' Gooding. Yet he has never proposed anything better. I don't think we pay a congressman just to vote 'no' all the time. We hope a congressman can give some type of leadership."

Judge Robert L. Jacobs, Carlisle, candidate for Superior Court, said that "a judge must necessarily be non-partisan because he must dispense non-partisan justice. The Superior Court is important for it has final jurisdiction in many matters. My personal viewpoint is that the courts, both county and Superior Court, can help keep down crime by seeing that the criminal who repeats his crime is kept in jail as long as possible to protect the public. We are not engaged in a sporting match with crime; we are in a deadly battle with it."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Local boys and girls are urged by Dr. Anson M. Hamm, principal of the Fairfield High School and president of the Adams County Teachers Association, to remain in school until completion of their education rather than be attracted by the high salaries of war-time positions.

Approximately 200 of the German war prisoners camped along the Emmitsburg Rd., south of Gettysburg, probably will remain there throughout the winter. Plans are being made to transfer about 200 prisoners to the old CCC and Camp Sharpe buildings along W. Confederate Ave., thus establishing winter quarters that could be maintained during the colder months. At present the stockade south of town has only tent shelters and is not suitable for winter occupancy. If adequate plans can be completed the prisoners would be available to local orchardists in the apple harvest and packing houses and to cut pulp wood.

Damage estimated at $15,000 was caused Friday evening when flames razed the evaporating plant of Gottlieb Kittelberger at the eastern end of Bendersville. Cause of the blaze was unknown. The plant was used for drying apples.

1st Lt. John C. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brown, his 50th mission as a B-24 navigator in Europe. He arrived overseas last April and has engaged in bombing missions over Germany, France, Austria, Hungary, Romania and Italy. He was awarded the Air Medal and three oak leaf clusters for meritorious service.

A Gettysburg R. 5 man has been arrested on two counts of cruelty to cattle. He was charged with mistreating a pitch fork on the cows after they allegedly kicked over the bucket while he was milking.

Two lower Adams County men were jailed over the weekend on a charge brought by a chicken farmer who claims the pair have taken at least 400 chickens from his henhouses during the past two years.

W. J. Hughes, 18, Gettysburg youth who served in the U.S. Army for more than a year before it was discovered that he was under age, has been sworn into the Merchant Marine and will report for duty in about 10 days. He was discharged from the Army last fall.

Gettysburg's public schools will open Monday with an enrollment of 1,250-1,300 boys and girls, 100 of whom are first graders. Parochial school enrollment totals 240 pupils.

Boatswain's Mate Second Class Jacob G. Appier is spending a 30-day leave in Gettysburg after serving 15 months in the South Pacific with the Sea Bees. He was attached to the Marine First Division and fought with the Leathernecks through the New Guinea and Cape Gloucester campaigns.

SALISBURY, Md. (AP)—The seventh annual Salisbury Open Golf Tournament, boasting a number of well-known performers, starts Friday with a pro-am event.

Among the latest to enter the tourney at Green Hill Yacht and Country Club were touring pro Bill Collins, a Baltimore native now playing out of Grossinger's, N.Y., and Vic Ghezzi of Rumson, N.J., a veteran pro who now is a representative for a sporting goods company.

Today's Talk

THE FUTILITY OF MEDDLING
Minding one's own business is one of the surest methods by which to attain success and happiness. The moment individuals, or nations, depart from attending to their own business, trouble begins and before the dire consequences are fully realized chaos pokes its ugly head into all concerned.

The world needs a thorough education in sanity. You can't meddle with some one else's business and not get burned or rebuffed. We grow in stature every time we help someone else, but we shrink and endanger our own well-being when we merely meddle — usually because of some selfish purpose. Trustful cooperation alone can save this one world!

Meddle with any of Nature's laws, and there is an immediate penalty to pay! Why we should exult ourselves above Nature is something to think about. The history of all wars is the history of meddling, excepting where the life and freedom of a people have been at stake, and where they have been attacked for their declaration.

Why should asylum be accorded to any, upon this Western continent, who only come here to meddle and build trouble fires? Why do they not stay at home and perfect their own theories of life and government, if they consider them so superior? There is plenty of room for improvement in every nation. But its own citizens, who love it, should be the sole arbiters of its life and destiny. The sacred soil of freedom is no place in which to sow the tares of distrust, disloyalty, and destruction.

We should be individual helpers, no matter where we live, or roam — but not meddlers in other people's affairs and business. We get gratitude for the former, but only contempt for the latter.

Even meddling for what we think is a noble purpose, is frequently resented. Thus business of trying to save nations that have little, or nothing in common with our Western way of life is tricky business. Only those born to freedom can appreciate its precious asset! Proof, in example, radiates afar.

Just Folks

THE PESSIMIST
He worried in the morning just as soon as he arose.
He wondered what would happen if his trusted bank should close.
And if the skies were sunny to his wife he'd turn and say:
"Should I carry my umbrella just in case it rains today?"

When fortune smiled upon him he was sure it couldn't last.
He never saw the sunbeams for the shadows that they cast.
If a banquet he attended he would think with every bit,
"This may give me indigestion and I may not sleep tonight."

The gold watch in his pocket was a handsome thing to see,
But every day he wondered:
"What if it should be stolen?"
If a friend gave him a promise, then the dreadful thought occurred
Of the bitter consequences should he fail to keep his word.

I merely cite his record just to show that men can find Endless causes to be fearful if to worry they're inclined.

Now his home is filled with treasures of the finest and the first,
But he views them but to shudder, since the water pipes may burst.

Balanced Budget

PARIS (AP) — France has been promised its first balanced budget in more than 30 years in 1965.

The budget, approved Wednesday by the French Cabinet, provides a surplus of about $1.12 billion. But Finance Minister Valéry Giscard d'Estaing said all but about $2.4 million of this would go to cover this year's deficit.

PROGRAMS AND COMMITTEES GIVEN FOR PTA

"Partners in Education" is the program theme for 1964-65 of the Littlestown Jointure Parent-Teachers Association as announced at the first fall meeting held on Tuesday evening at the Rolling Acres Elementary School.

The meeting programs for the next seven months will be as follows: October 20, symposium on "Should Sex Be Taught in Our Schools and How?" with Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, school nurse, as program chairman; November 17, open house with the annual observance of "American Education Week." First Vice President Sterling J. Wisotzky, chairman; December 16, annual Christmas musicale for the public at the high school by the students.

January 19, round table discussion on "Educational TV Problems and Possibilities" with Herbert Yost as program chairman; February 16, Founder's Day observance on the theme "How Can the PTA Help the School Program?" with Mrs. Gilbert Evans as chairman; March 16, program on "A New Approach to Elementary Science." Mrs. Verda Schue, elementary teacher, as chairman; April 20, "100 Years of Education at Littlestown" with Lloyd L. Stavelly, administrative assistant, chairman.

ANNOUNCE COMMITTEES

The new standing committees were also announced: Budget and finance, Rev. Graham T. Rinehart, chairman, Mrs. Ronald Hedges and Mrs. Andrew Gregg; program, Lloyd Stavelly, chairman, Mrs. Brenda Walker, Mrs. Gilbert Evans, Mrs. Verda Schue, Herbert Yost and Sterling Wisotzky; social committee, Mrs. Betty Hull, chairman, Mrs. Mildred Kline, Mrs. Clifford Horn and Mrs. Charles Good; publicity, Mrs. Margaret B. Lohr, chairman, Mrs. Larry Mummert and Mrs. Ray T. Harner.

Music committee, Mrs. Patricia Noll, chairman, Mrs. Larry E. McGriff, Mrs. Otto C. Sells and Mrs. J. Scott Zanger; membership, Mrs. Myrtle R. Manthey, chairman, Mrs. George E. Hornberger, Mrs. Luther S. Hess Jr. and Mrs. Loy Lee King; hospital committee, Mrs. Donald C. Feaser, chairman, Mrs. LeRoy Berwanger and Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz.

In keeping with the general theme "Partners in Education," there was a discussion on the subject "Philosophy of Education at Littlestown" by the principals, John H. Riley, elementary principal, told the audience that the school aims to help children use their potential and strives to benefit the "whole" child.

BASEHOAR'S TALK
In his talk, Frank E. Basehoar, high school principal, explained that the school develops a sense of belonging and prepares the youth to meet the challenge of living through a versatile curriculum. He also introduced William L. Coradetti, new guidance counselor at the school. The latter spoke briefly telling of the services of the guidance program. Jointure Supervising Principal Paul E. King noted that the school needs the assistance and cooperation of the parents to develop the "whole" child. He encouraged parents to attend PTA as well as other school functions.

President Dale W. Starry Sr. presided for the session, which he opened by giving the invocation. The flag salute followed in unison. Mrs. Ruth W. Elder, high school music teacher, presented Randy Lehigh, who sang "When Jesus Came." He was accompanied by Miss Carolyn Kump, a Senior. Group singing was led by Mrs. Patricia Noll, elementary teacher. Reports were given by Miss Mary Catherine Shildt, secretary, and Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., treasurer. The new teachers of the jointure were introduced. It was announced that there will be no school on Monday, October 5, due to county institute. The evening's attendance award went to the First Grade taught by Mrs. Mildred B. Koons.

Refreshments were served during the closing social hour.

Harrisburg Man
Is Rotary Speaker

The Littlestown Rotarians had a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. Giles Light, Harrisburg, of the Gulf Oil Corporation, was the guest speaker and told about research being carried on by major industries including research in plastics and nylon. The speaker was introduced by Roy Kooztz of the classification and membership committee. President James L. Rhoades, presided.

There will be a guest speaker at the dinner meeting next Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's. The program will be in charge of the vocational service committee, consisting of George P. Smith, chairman, Clyde W. Crouse, Nevaeh A. Crouse, Lester F. Berkheimer, Marvin Harner and Clarence J. Krichen Jr.

YOUTH SESSION DISRUPTED BY RED CHINESE

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN
MOSCOW (AP)—A Communist Chinese delegate threw the first business session of Moscow's International Youth Forum into pandemonium today with charges that it "reeks of an anti-China campaign."

Boos, derisive whistles and catcalls interrupted a Chinese speaker when he denounced a reports criticism of the Chinese. A Chinese delegat sized th rostrum over protests from the chairman of the meeting of youth organizations from more than 120 countries.

FOLLOWED BY OTHERS

The Chinese was followed in quick succession by pro-Chinese speakers from North Korea and Indonesia.

The controversial report was delivered by Benham Petros of Iraq, a member of the forum secretariat. He recorded the Chinese had refused to attend preparatory meetings and later failed to give satisfactory answers to queries about their attitude toward the meeting.

A Chinese delegate demanded the floor on a point of information. Chairman Enoko Oplili of Kenya quickly moved adoption of the report by a show of hands, but the Chinese speaker launched into a vigorous denial of Petros' reproaches against the Peking delegates.

DEMANDS RESPECT

"Some people are continuing to accuse us and mobilize public opinion against us," he charged. He concluded with a demand that the conference leaders respect the "elementary principles of democracy at international conferences."

Oplili said he would pass the Chinese protest on to the forum presidium. When he finished speaking, he glanced across the stage to find a Korean and his translator standing quietly before the microphone.

NO WIND AND NO CUP RACE
ON WEDNESDAY

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — No wind, no race and the America's Cup standings remain: Constellation 1, Sovereign 0.

Both the American defender, Constellation, and Britain's challenger, Sovereign, were frustrated by postponement. Constellation was kept from what many expected would have been her second triumph and Sovereign was balked at demonstrating that she was not as pakey as she appeared in her trouncing in the first race Tuesday.

Both may have their chance to prove themselves today in a south or southeastern wind of 10-15 knots, forecast from the weather bureau.

ZEPHYRS SHIFTE

A lovely afternoon on Rhode Island Sound Wednesday offered everything anyone that a yachtsman would desire — sun, calm seas, almost bathing suit temperatures. But only the slightest of zephyrs played about the 24.3-mile course where Britain's Royal Thames Yacht Club hopes to do something no one has done since Millard Fillmore was president back in 1851, win the America's Cup from the U.S. defender.

Bus Mosbacher, skipper of the successful American defender Weatherly in 1962, later explained the committee called the race because what wind there was had backed about 50 degrees into the north-northwest seven minutes before the start and moving the navy tugs, used as marks, would have postponed the start past the 2:10 p.m. deadline for the commencement of a race.

The Korean criticized "the abnormal situation that has developed" at the meeting. He accused Petros' report of "phrasemongering" against the Chinese and demanded "The immediate rejection of accusations and attacks that have taken place."

Oplili said he would allow no more speakers, but a pro-Peking Indonesian delegate ran up to the rostrum and voiced a defense of the Chinese.

MOUNT CARROLL, Ill. (AP) — Richard Gaar, 15, of Milledgeville, has been charged with murder and arson after admitting that he started a fire in which his parents died.

Robert Puckett, deputy state fire marshal, said Gaar told questioners he emptied a two-gallon can of gasoline outside the bedroom of his sleeping parents a week ago and lit a match.

"He told us he knew he had done something wrong as soon as he lit the gasoline, but something kept urging him on," Puckett said.

Duke Snider Says
He's Going To Quit

NEW YORK (AP) — Duke Snider of the San Francisco Giants and once one of baseball's most feared sluggers, announced Wednesday he would retire at the end of the season, Dick Young, sports writer of the Daily News, reported in his story from San Francisco.

Young is traveling with the New York Mets, who beat the Giants Wednesday 4-0.

Snider, an outfielder nearing his 38th birthday, starred with the old Brooklyn Dodgers and the Los Angeles Dodgers before he was traded to the Mets in 1963. The Mets sold him to the Giants early this season.

ON BAKER CASE

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — Republican Sen. Hugh Scott, campaigning for re-election in Cumberland County Wednesday, christened his "mobile bandwagon" and criticized his Senate Democratic colleagues for their handling of the Bobby Baker investigation.

Scott said Democrats in the Senate will not take any action in the Baker case "because they are in mortal fear of what the truth would mean for their party" in an election year.

In a speech at a Republican picnic, Scott said:

"The same charade of inaction, ineptitude and cover-up will be slowly acted out once more, at least until Nov. 3 (Election Day) is safely past. 'I do not need a crystal ball to predict that no matter how vigorously the Senate Rules Committee, the graveyard committee for Senate scandals, investigates, they will not come up with the whole truth of the Bobby Baker scandals.'"

The senator's campaign "bandwagon," equipped with sleeping quarters, stove, sink, shower, table, desks, typewriter and a radio telephone, received its official highway christening at the picnic.

Big Spring At Biglerville Friday; Bubblers Host To GHS Saturday; Other Tilts

Adams County's scholastic football teams are hoping for a better weekend when they take to the gridirons Friday evening and Saturday.

In five opening games last week only Gettysburg High escaped defeat, gaining at 13-13 tie at Westminster. All other teams suffered losses but have high hopes of rebounding with triumphs this week.

The Warriors will inaugurate the Blue Mountain League season at Boiling Springs Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Another Saturday game pits Littlestown against West York on the latter's field at 2 p.m.

Biglerville takes on Big Spring Friday evening in the Canners' initial home game. Lebanon Catholic invades McSherrystown to meet Delone while Bermudian Springs travels to Juniata Joint. All Friday games start at 8 o'clock.

GETTYSBURG AT BOILING SPRINGS

A highlight of this week's school-boy program is the opening of the Blue Mountain League and the Warriors make their debut at Boiling Springs Saturday evening.

Coach Don Young's Warriors have been picked by preseason dopsters as one of the top contenders for East Pennsboro's crown. They cannot take the Bubblers, usually a weak sister, lightly.

Boiling Springs got off to a fine start last Saturday by easily defeating Trinity High 18-0, holding the Shamrocks to but 21 yards rushing. Coach Al Wilson got a surprising performance from Ken Myers who was shifted to quarterback only last week. He threw two touchdown passes and raced 40 yards for another score.

BUBBLER VETS

The Bubblers have 13 lettermen, including Dick Clepper, Gary McCoy and Dennis Eremus, ends; Glen Lightner, tackle; Bob Duncan, Paul Walters and Emory Wilson, guards; Bill March, center; Jim Barisik, Danny Line, Dean Capper, Curt Barber and Jim Temmer, backs. Myers, a Junior, did not earn a letter last year.

Coach Young announced his Warrior squad escaped without any injuries in the game at Westminster and will send a healthy team against the Bubblers. However, Kit Richardson, back, a Junior, will again be sidelined due to a thigh injury.

No change is expected in the Gettysburg starting array. Young revealed he was pleased in the general all-around play of his charges in their first outing, particularly in the second half when the line play improved greatly with honors going to the guards. He cited Dave Lutz and Tom Hefflin, linebackers; John Waybright, tackle, and Tom Gilbert, tackle, as coming up with pleasing performances on the defense.

This week the Warriors have worked on pass defense to combat the pro-type attack of the Bubblers which promises to give the local outfit a busy evening.

BIG SPRING AT BIGLERVILLE

This is another BML opener and promises to be one of the toughest for Coach Jack Emanuel and his young Canner squad.

Big Spring is another team which has been tabbed as having an excellent shot at the 1964 BML title and the Bulldogs lived up to expectations by romping to an easy 34-0 win over Lower Dauphin last week.

In Johnny Lutz, 180-pound senior quarterback, Big Spring has one of the finest play-directors in the circuit. He turned in a terrific all-around performance last week and the Canners will have to contain him if they hope to spring an upset.

In addition to Lutz, Big Spring has the following lettermen: Bill Short, Tom Neidigh, Randy Kann,

JIM BUNNING TAKES FIFTH LOSS OF 1964

HOUSTON (AP)—It rained in Houston Wednesday night, but not quite enough for the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

Just before game time—already delayed a soaking one hour and 15 minutes—the local weather bureau predicted more heavy showers. But they never hit Houston.

Instead, Houston hit the Phillies for a 6-5 loss, keeping the league leaders six games ahead of the pace. The Phils had had a chance to make it a strong seven, as the St. Louis Cardinals dropped a 3-2 decision to the Milwaukee Braves.

5TH WIN IN 18

Rusty Staub dampened the Phillies' chances, hitting a two-run homer and making a key throw in the Colt victory. The Colts won just five of the 18 games they played against the Phillies this season. This was their last meeting.

Staub's homer off starter Jim Bunning tied the score in the first inning at 2-2, and his throw in the eighth saved Houston's thin lead.

Ruben Amaro had dropped a single in front of right-fielder Staub with the bases loaded and one out. The hit scored two runs. But Staub's perfect throw to third base cut down pinch runner Adolpho Phillips, who stumbled rounding second in trying to advance from first.

Bunning had started the game on just two days' rest as manager Gene Mauch tried to give him another shot at the Phils, a team he had beaten four times this year. Bunning went 10 innings on Sunday against the San Francisco Giants to notch his 17th win. This was his 17th loss.

The Colts chased Bunning with a four-run burst in the fifth, when he gave up three singles and two walks, one to the bases loaded. John Bate-man's bad-hop, two-run single off reliever Bobby Locke finished the scoring in that stanza.

Don Nottebart, Gordon Jones, Skinny Brown and Bob Bruce all went to the mound for Houston.

WIN FOR BROW'N

Bruce, making a rare appearance in relief, took over after three singles loaded the bases off Brown in the top of the eighth, with one out. He fanned Cookie Rojas, then came Amaro's hit and Staub's throw.

Brown picked up the win for three-and-a-half innings of relief. He's 3-15 on the season. The Phillies met the Los Angeles Dodgers tonight.

The work of Keith Stambaugh, Tom Harbold, Joe Lemmon and Tod Tanger against Northern was noteworthy and Shreiner is hopeful they, as well as other squad members, will come up with good performances against the Indians.

Juniata Joint whipped Newport of the Blue Mountain League 26-0 to open its campaign last week.

LITTLESTOWN AT WEST YORK
Jim Bittle, Littlestown's star 210-pound veteran tackle, will be missing when the Thunderbolts line up against West York on the latter's field Saturday afternoon and that will make it doubly tough for the Bolts to rebound following last week's setback.

Bittle suffered a fractured bone in his right hand in the Suburban game and will be sidelined for at least two weeks.

In order to adjust, Coach Bill Heyser will use Bob Horner, Jerry Pottoff and Mike Gladhill to plug up the gap on the defense.

Other than Bittle, the Bolts are in good shape and are set for a stiff battle. Heyser was fairly well pleased with the play of Louis Orndorff, Bruce Crouse and Greg Myers on the offense last week as well as the defensive work of Bittle, Pottoff, Gladhill and Jim Streiv.

Despite the presence of but six returning lettermen, West York put on a fine exhibition in edging Spring Grove 13-7 last Saturday in its York County League opener.

The Bulldogs have always been a tough opponent for Littlestown and the upcoming game is expected to be another hard fought affair.

Lettermen on the West York squad are Jay Miller and Jim

Phillie Fan Marks His 102nd Birthday

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Clayton Eby, who seldom misses Philadelphia Phillies' games on television or radio, observed his 102nd birthday today with this prediction: The Phillies can't miss winning the National League pennant.

Eby, a retired department store clerk, said he had nothing special on tap today "but I'll be serving birthday cake to anybody who wants to drop in and see me."

Chisox Move Into Tie For Top Spot With Birds While Yankees Beat L.A. Angels

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

At the rate Hank Bauer's smoking cigarettes, if the Baltimore Orioles don't win the American League pennant, he might be able to get it for the coupons on the back of the pack.

Bauer, who admittedly has turned into a smokestack in the tension-filled final days of the pennant scramble, huffed and puffed Wednesday night as his Orioles blew sole possession of the American League lead by losing to Minnesota 2-1.

It was Baltimore's 14th loss in the last 25 games and dropped the Orioles into a flat-footed tie for first place with the Chicago White Sox while the third-place New York Yankees climbed to within one percentage point of the top.

4 PACKS A DAY

And Bauer has been smoking so many cigarettes during the slump, he could make a steel mill look like it's on strike.

Bauer admitted it recently when he was asked how the tight struggle has affected him. "I haven't lost any hair, although it is a little whiter," he said. "I'm sleeping and eating all right, and I don't have ulcers."

Then he pointedly held up a lighted cigarette and said:

BROWN BOYS RANK HIGH IN NFL FIGURES

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Off the first returns, it appears that any time a player runs with the ball in the National Football League this season, the announcer will automatically call "Brown carried."

The first NFL offense statistics, covering the season's opening games, showed today that Bill Brown of the Minnesota Vikings and Jim Brown of Cleveland are second and third in the ball-carrying tabulation, behind Minnesota's Tommy Mason. Those two Browns and Philadelphia's Tim Brown scored two touchdowns apiece, trailing Detroit kicker Wayne Walker, who made 14 points with four field goals and two conversions.

There could be more confusion. Ed Brown, the Pittsburgh quarterback, shows up in the passing statistics. And Bill Brown could be among the leading pass receivers in a few more weeks. He caught three for 84 yards in the opener besides rushing for 103 yards on 20 attempts.

Mason beat out his teammate for rushing honors by gaining 137 yards on 20 carries for a 6.9 average. Jim Brown ran 23 times for 89 yards.

Two quarterbacks who traded jobs during the off season, Norm Snead, now of Philadelphia, and Sonny Jurgensen, now of Washington, stood out in the passing statistics. Snead took the No. 1 spot under the complicated NFL reckonings, completing 12 of 21 for 170 yards and two touchdowns. Jurgensen pitched for 235 yards, the greatest total.

Leading pass receiver was Frank Clarke of Dallas with 10 catches for 145 yards.

Coach Gene Haas is well pleased with the performance of his four talented athletes. He said, "Egrestiz and Masin are exceptionally fine pass receivers. They both have good hands, are both excellent runners and both have good size. Egrestiz is a little more elusive as a runner while Masin is the bulldozer type, running over the opposition rather than around. Their size adds to their line blocking ability. Both are also strong defensive players especially when it comes to rushing the passer."

LAUDS PLAYERS
As far as Snower is concerned, Haas said, "He is very agile especially on defense. He is extremely strong for his size. Our guards either trap block or pull and lead backs around the corners. He does both well, but his trap blocking is the best we have seen in a long time."

"Albright is the perfect combination of the halfback-fullback type player we like to use in our system," the Bullet tutor said, in sizing up the York native. "He is a good power runner with some adequate open field ability. He plays a good defensive game in particular against a running back. He is probably the best tackler on the squad. This tactical phase of the game carries over to make him an efficient blocking back when called upon."

Gettysburg is looking forward to one of his best seasons in recent years. This is due primarily to the return of 15 lettermen bolstered by a crop of well groomed sophomores. Such men as Egrestiz, Masin, Albright and Snower should insure the success of the 1964 campaign.

ARCHERY SHOOT SUNDAY
The Gettysburg Archery Club will hold an all-deer shoot Sunday.

SEE ROUGH WORKOUT
All but two members of the team Navy will start Saturday—junior guard John Connolly and sophomore left halfback Tom Leiser—were sophomores in 1962.

But only a few of them saw action against Penn State. Staubach, who since has blossomed into an All-America quarterback, played only four minutes and that was after the game had turned into a rout.

"The players are not thinking about two years ago at all," Hardin said.

Staubach, who has a chance to become the first player ever to win the Heisman Trophy as the nation's most outstanding two years in a row, can look for a rough workout in his 1964 opener.

BATting—Roger Maris, Yankees, collected his 1,000th homer in the sixth inning that major league hit, a two-run broke a 3-3 tie, carried New York to a 9-4 victory over Los Angeles and pulled the defending American League champions to within one percentage point of first place.

PITCHING—Camilo Pascual, Twins, scattered seven hits and struck out 12, including the side in the ninth inning, as Minnesota defeated Baltimore 2-1 and dropped the Orioles into a tie for the American League lead with the Chicago White Sox.

NEW STARTERS WILL OPPOSE HOFSTRA TEAM
Four new faces will be in the starting lineup when Gettysburg College opens its 1964 football season here Saturday afternoon. The Bullets will battle Hofstra University on Memorial Field in the season's lid lifter.

Joe Egrestiz, 6'2", 200-pounds from Harrisburg, and Dick Masin, 6'1", 210, from South Orange, N. J., will start at the ends. Rod Albright, 5'11", 190-pound native of York, and Ken Snower, 5'11", 190, Pompton Plains, N. J., will receive starting nods at fullback and left guard, respectively. Snower is a newcomer to the Bullet grid scene while the other three are sophomores.

Phils Lose To Colts As Mets Blank Giants; Cards Bow But Reds Win

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

By the time Willie Mays completes his latest rest cure, the tottering San Francisco Giants may be beyond healing.

A tired, slump-ridden Mays sat out his second straight game Wednesday while the light in Candlestick Park grew dimmer. New York's Tracy Stallard, losingest pitcher in the majors, blanked the Giants 4-0 on a five-hitter, pushing them within a few backward steps of extinction in what is left of the National League pennant race.

The fourth place Giants are 7 1/2 games behind front-running Philadelphia, despite the Phils' 6-5 loss to Houston Wednesday night, and it's beginning to look like even a hot-handed

And Mays is far from hot. His batting average has dipped below the .300 mark—to .299—for the first time since the season's opening week.

The Giants who did swing against Stallard had little luck. The 27-year-old right-hander struck out 10, equalling the club record, and picked up his 10th victory and second shutout of the year. He has lost 18.

George Altman supplied the offensive punch with three hits, including a two-run homer and run-scoring double.

Denis Menke's three-run homer gave Milwaukee a 3-2 decision over second place St. Louis, leaving the Cardinals six games off the pace. Cincinnati took the third spot, 7 1/2 games behind and one percentage point up on the Giants, with a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Pittsburgh parlayed three second-inning home runs into a 7-5 victory over The Los Angeles Dodgers.

Stallard held the Giants hitless through the first three innings and allowed five singles thereafter. Altman, who doubled in one of two first inning runs and crashed his eighth homer with Joe Christopher aboard in the eighth, helped Stallard out of a jam in the bottom of the eighth with a running catch of Harvey Kuenn's liner.

METS BEAT PERRY
Gaylord Perry, unbeaten in five previous decisions against the Mets, suffered his 10th season defeat. He has won 11. The victory was the Mets' 50th, one short of their single-season high a year ago.

The Colts thwarted Jim Bunning's bid for victory No. 18, pushing across four runs in the fifth inning and holding off the Phils' late rush.

Bunning, 17-5, worked with only two days rest. He held a 3-2 lead going into the fifth but was lifted after singles by Al Spangler

State Road Users Paid $285,905,000 In Taxes

Highway users in Pennsylvania paid a total of $285,905,000 in federal automotive taxes during 1963, it was reported today by William E. Miller, general manager of the AAA Gettysburg Motor Club.

"These payments," Miller said, "result from such federal taxes as four cents per gallon on gasoline, 10 per cent on new cars, buses and trucks, eight per cent on parts and accessories, 10 cents a pound on tires and tubes and other assorted accessories."

The AAA Gettysburg Motor Club official pointed out that the state's highway users ranked sixth among the 50 states in the matter of payment of federal automotive taxes last year, topped only by the following: California, $523,160,000; New York, $368,707,000; Texas, $329,526,000; Illinois, $289,601,000; and Ohio, $286,265,000.

HUGE U. S. TOTAL
"For the nation as a whole," Miller reported, "federal automotive tax collections in 1963 hit the all-time high total of $5.245 billion. According to official U. S. Bureau of Public Roads figures, approximately $3 1/4 billion of this went to the Highway Trust Fund which supports the federal-aid program, while about $2 billion was diverted to the general funds of the U. S. Treasury."

"The biggest single money-producer was the four-cent federal gasoline tax which brought in $2.5 billion. Next highest source of income was the excise tax on new cars which raised $1.6 billion."

"The amount paid by highway users to Uncle Sam last year is roughly equivalent to the total amount of taxes gathered from all sources in 1940," according to Miller.

3 BATTLE IN RHODE ISLAND

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — A three-way contest for the Democratic nomination for governor highlights primary voting today in the nation's smallest state.

The Democrats have four top contests. All Republican candidates for statewide offices, Congress and U.S. Senate, are unopposed.

Lt. Gov. Edward P. Gallogly, who carries the Democratic party endorsement in the contest for governor, is opposed by State Rep. Alexander R. Walsh and John L. Rego, a former state agriculture director.

HEADS GOP TICKET
Gov. John H. Chafee, seeking a second two-year term, heads the Republican ticket.

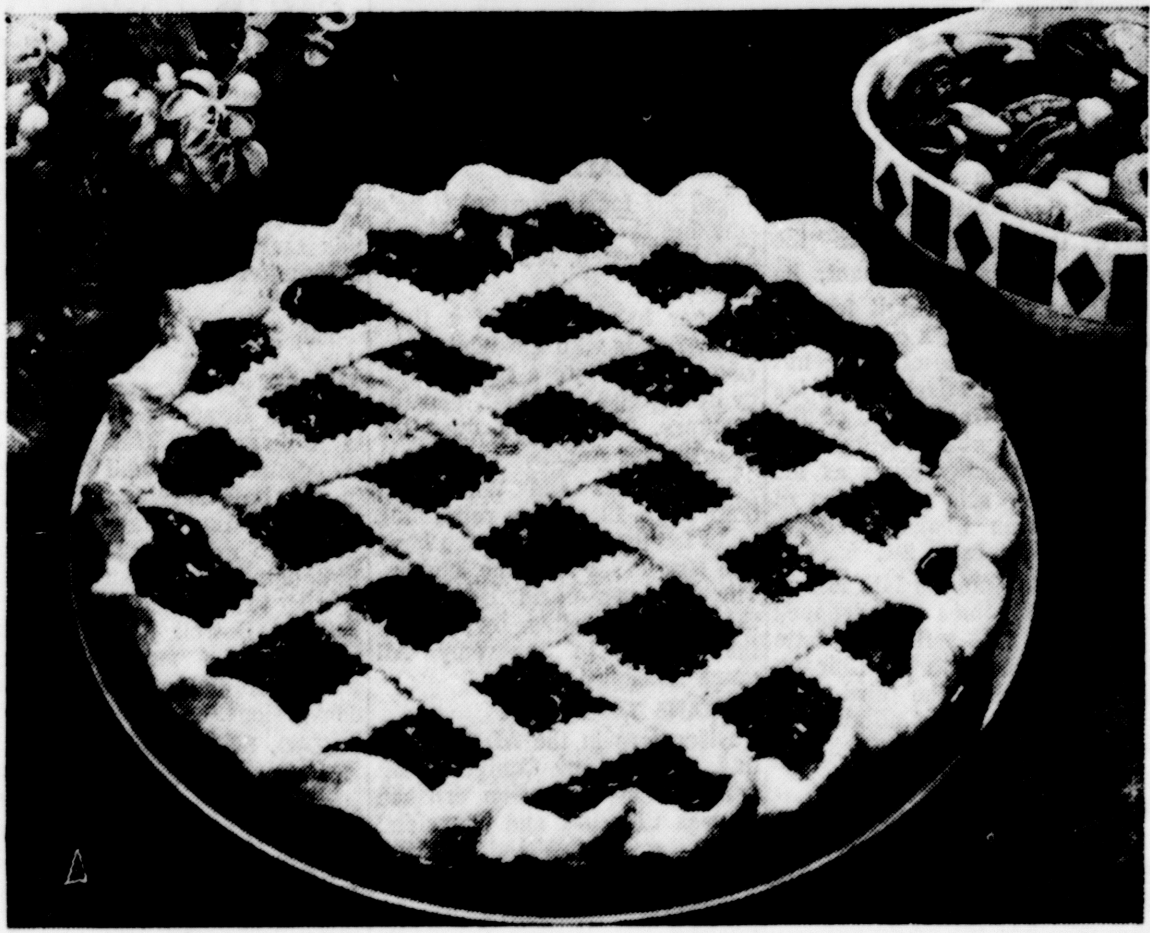

Besides the fight for the gubernatorial nomination, the Democrats have contests for lieutenant governor, state attorney general and Congress in the 1st District.

Gallogly has ignored his primary opponents and concentrated on Chafee. Walsh has focused his attack on Gallogly, describing the lieutenant governor as a "weak" and "careless" candidate who, Walsh says, cannot win in November against Chafee.

Rego contends his administrative experience qualifies him for the governorship.

The Library of Congress had a staff of 2,900 persons last year and expended $29 million.

Heritage Pie

One peek at this cherry mincemeat pie creation and the family will be singing your praises! It makes a delicious finale for a luncheon or dinner or simply a "dessert and coffee" affair.

Pies are our most universal dessert. They're served round-the-world every season of the year. The variety of pie recipes doubtless could fill volumes.

Here's a prize pie to introduce to your family some day soon. It's a cherry-mincemeat creation named Heritage Pie.

Of course, any homemaker knows that one of the most severe tests of a good cook is her ability to make good pastry.

How is it done? It takes practice, it takes a light hand at mixing and the right kind of shortening. In no other baked product

EX - POLICEMAN KILLS PEDDLER

NEW YORK (AP) — A street peddler of "dancing" paper dolls was shot to death on Broadway near Times Square Wednesday night, and the gunfire threw the theater and dinner-hour crowd of thousands into turmoil.

Chief of Detectives Philip J. Walsh said the peddler, Clarence Ritchie, 40, Negro, was slain by retired police Sgt. Peter Droner, 57, in an argument over the dolls, which Droner called a swindle.

Thousands of persons gathered at the scene of the shooting, on the west side of Broadway between 46th and 47th Sts., shortly after 7 p.m. Hundreds of autos halted and traffic was tied up for several blocks.

Police said Droner maintained a license for his revolver after he retired from the police force five years ago for reasons of disability. He was booked on a homicide charge.

Riddles Walls To Find Kittens

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — H. S. Huffman had to bore four holes in the kitchen wall and one in the garage before locating the new arrivals at his house.

The family cat had bedded down in the attic, where she gave birth to four kittens.

Huffman couldn't reach them and had to bore holes in the walls each time he heard a "meow" from the other side of the plaster.

Florida Expands Sugar Acreage

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — The U.S. boycott of Castro Cuba's sugar is sweetening Florida's production by the handful.

State Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner told Miami businessmen that 150,000 acres of Florida land are in sugar cane now compared to 60,000 two years ago.

Clark Protests On Medical Care

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., has again protested in the Senate that a majority of the Senate conferees on the social security bill are opposed to the Senate's health care amendment.

Senate and House conferees are considering a Senate amendment adding health care under social security to a House passed bill boosting social security benefits.

"I would hesitate to serve on a conference committee if my views were so strongly opposed to the position of the Democratic platform and the position of the president of the United States," Clark said Wednesday.

He urged that three Democrats on the Senate group who voted against the amendment "search their consciences" to see whether they should retire from the conference with the House in favor of senators who voted for it.

CLAIMS WRONG APPROACH USED

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pennsylvania is using the wrong approach to attract new industry, says a Pennsylvania State University economist.

Instead of offering industry tax subsidies and "gimmicks," Randall S. Stout says, the state should work toward the improvement of communities.

Stout said communities need good schools, adequate water and sewage systems and training programs for workers. He added, in a speech Wednesday at the 57th annual Conference of Taxation.

"State and local tax changes

MISS BLATT ASSAILS SCOTT

DENVER, Pa. (AP) — Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for U.S. Senate, says her opponent, Republican Hugh Scott, "is trying to have it both ways" on the question of support for Republican presidential candidate Barry Goldwater.

"When he is raising campaign funds, he is all for Goldwater," Miss Blatt said Wednesday in a speech to the Guy Bard Democratic Club.

"When he is printing his campaign literature, he just happens to forget mentioning whom he is running with," Miss Blatt said.

She said Scott is campaigning in Pennsylvania with two speeches—"one of them supporting Goldwaterism, the other ignoring it."

As for her course, Miss Blatt said, "Let there be no mistake I support Lyndon B. Johnson because his is the course of responsibility, of moderation, and of progress."

have had only minor effects in influencing business to change locations."

Eugene A. Myers, another Penn State economist, said, "In areas where business is given tax subsidies, trade unions will base part of their wage increase demands on the fact that industry is getting these subsidies."

SCRANTON TO MAKE TRIP FOR GOP TICKET

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton sets out for Iowa and Minnesota Monday in support of the national Republican ticket which he fought unsuccessfully to head.

The two-day swing is Scranton's first major step in fulfilling his pledge to campaign for Sen. Barry M. Goldwater and Rep. William E. Miller, the GOP presidential and vice presidential nominees.

Despite his pledge, Scranton may be hard pressed to divert attention from his earlier criticism of Goldwater, delivered during the governor's 11th hour bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

Part of the remedy may be an attempt by Scranton to intensify the spotlight on President Johnson's conduct of foreign affairs. The question of Viet Nam is likely to receive considerable emphasis, as it has from the nominees themselves.

A source close to the governor said Scranton's approach to possible charges of inconsistency may parallel that of Goldwater himself following the GOP nomination of Richard Nixon in 1960. At that time, Goldwater, at odds with Nixon over the direction of the national party and the platform in particular, campaigned for the Republican ticket on the basis of "no choice."

TO SEVEN STATES
"I don't like some of the things in the Republican platform and I don't like some of the things Dick Nixon is saying," Goldwater said at the time, "but they are so far preferable to the Democratic platform and the Democratic candidate that the conservatives have no choice but to support the Republican ticket."

Whether the wounds opened by the Goldwater-Scranton nomination fight are deeper and more enduring than those opened by the Nixon-Goldwater struggle four years ago is expected to receive considerable attention as the governor starts campaigning for the national ticket.

Scranton has scheduled speaking engagements in at least seven states in the next few weeks.

Other trips include: New Jersey, Sept. 28; Maryland and Indiana, Sept. 29; Rhode Island and Connecticut, Oct. 6, and Illinois, Oct. 8.

MORE RIBBONS AWARDED AT DAIRY SHOW

HARRISBURG (AP) — Three Pennsylvania entries won blue ribbons Wednesday in international competition at the state's first All-American Dairy Show.

Jean L. A. du Pont of Newtown Square, John Marchezak of Bentleyville, and Clyde Holtzapfel of Selinsgrove showed winners.

Three breeds were judged Wednesday and the same number were to be judged today as the four-day show drew to a close.

FROM 16 STATES
The first two days of judging saw only Pennsylvania entries, but the last two days featured competition among 2,200 prize head of dairy cattle from 16 states and Canada.

Blue ribbon winners Wednesday, by breeds, included:

OTHER WINNERS
Brown Swiss females — Grand and senior champion, "Squire's Gretel," Swissvale Farms, Westminster, Md.

Ayrshire bulls — Grand and senior champion, "Selwood Coraers," Aylmer, Ontario.

Ayrshire females — Grand and senior champion, "Ideal Hydrondelle," Meredith Farm.

School Solicitor Not Public Office

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP) — The job of solicitor for a school district is not a public office under a Cambria County Court ruling.

An opinion, written by President Judge George W. Griffith and handed down Wednesday, held that Dist. Atty. Ferdinand Bionaz is not in conflict with the law by serving as solicitor for several school districts.

In a civil suit filed last September, Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini contended Bionaz's holding of the jobs was illegal. Bionaz, a Democrat, was re-elected district attorney last November.

The complaint was based on a statute which states:

"No district attorney shall be eligible for a seat in the legislature or any other office under the laws and constitution of the Commonwealth during his continuance in office."

FIRST AID CAN BE IMPORTANT FOR ANIMALS

First aid is as important to an injured animal as it is to a human being and it can pay off in speeding recovery or even saving a pet's life.

Most pets are injured on the streets and highways, although others suffer wounds and fractures from falls, kicks, bites of other animals and even gunshot wounds, according to the Pennsylvania Veterinary Medical Association.

Just as the first step in human first aid is to call a doctor, the first rule in caring for an injured pet is to seek a veterinarian. Then, while awaiting his arrival or on a trip to a veterinary hospital, everything possible should be done to make the patient comfortable.

WARN OF DANGERS

There are many dangers in giving first aid to an injured pet, however, the veterinary group warned.

Often the mildest dog, being in pain and thoroughly frightened, will bite a stranger and may even turn on his master. In such cases, a muzzle made of gauze bandage or cloth should be looped around the animal's mouth and tied behind ears.

After this has been done, the animal may be lifted or rolled gently onto a makeshift stretcher or blanket and transferred to the veterinary hospital. Time, of course, is important because, in addition to possible internal hemorrhage, there is always the possibility of shock that must be treated without delay.

CUTS AND FRACTURES

First aid treatment of wounds depends upon the nature and location of the injury. A tourniquet, loosened every 15 minutes to relieve the pressure, can control

Bucknell To Use Gift For Building

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Bucknell University plans to construct an office and classroom building with a gift from a Luzerne County member of the Board of Trustees.

Receipt of the gift was announced in a convocation address Wednesday by Dr. Charles H. Watts II, who became the university's 11th president on Aug. 1.

No monetary figure was given for the contribution by A. Guy Freas of Huntingdon Mills. Watts said the gift was in honor of Freas' wife, Elisabeth Koons Freas.

The new building will complete an academic quadrangle on the campus.

bleeding of the tail or legs.

If a tourniquet cannot be applied, the surface of the wound may be covered with a clean piece of gauze or a handkerchief and a compress placed over the area and bound firmly into place with a bandage.

For fracture cases, a temporary splint may be applied to the fractured area by anyone who has had sufficient experience to attempt the task. In all fracture cases, the pet must be kept as quiet as possible and not allowed to attempt to walk on the injured limb.

SUSPECTED POISONING

Injuries to the eye are common. A moist piece of gauze should be placed next to the eye and a light bandage applied. Above all, the pet must be prevented from rubbing at the eye and causing further damage.

In cases of suspected poisoning, large quantities of soap water or salt water should be administered to induce vomiting. Whether successful or not, the pet should be kept warm and taken to a veterinarian as soon as possible.

ASKS CARE IN FOREST LANDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, secretary of forests and waters, is appealing to every Pennsylvanian for extreme caution and more stringent regulation of fires near state forest lands.

"During the past weekend, our forest protection agency logged 47 fires," Goddard said in a statement Wednesday. "Strict care must be taken by every resident of the state if we are to keep our beautiful forest lands green."

A summer drought has dried out much of the state's forests creating a fire hazard.

"Added to this are the several killing frosts which have contributed to the dead vegetation, making the fire hazard even more of a threat," said Paul Sutton, chief meteorologist at the U.S. Weather Bureau here. The Forests and Waters Department has banned all camp fires in state parks until further notice.

Lack of water is posing problems to towns and communities throughout the Commonwealth even to the point of threatening to close schools.

STUFFED DOG INCLUDED IN FDR DISPLAY

By CHARLES L. WEST

NEW YORK (AP) — It is just a toy stuffed dog, 18½ inches long, black, wearing a red leather collar and sporting a bobbed left ear.

It used to sit on top of a television set in a cottage called Val Kill in Hyde Park, N. Y.

Today it rested in a showcase in Hammer Galleries on East 57th St. in Manhattan, bearing a discreet tag, No. 911, and awaiting viewing by a black-tie audience tonight which would pay $10 apiece just to come in the doors.

This toy dog, worth maybe a dollar at the most, costs $25 — for it was part of the life of Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt and it was made in the image of Fala, probably the best known dog in U.S. history.

Fala, who became famous at the White House, is buried beside his master and mistress in the rose garden of the Roosevelt family home at Hyde Park. The galleries' catalog mentions that "head turns, one ear torn, probably torn by Fala."

The toy dog is one of 2,706 pieces of furniture, furnishings and mementoes and 3,500 books that belonged to the first family.

John A. Roosevelt and his sister, Anna Halsted, offered them for display and sale, explaining: "As you know, one is unable today to operate the large homes of the past. These articles are ones for which we have no room."

"It is our hope that others will find pleasure in possessing these things, which were a part of the intimate life of my parents and gave so much enjoyment to them."

The admissions tonight and a percentage of the sale will be donated to the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation, set up by federal law last year to foster the former first lady's ideals and activities.

Says State Needs More Federal Help

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton says Pennsylvania needs $303,500 from the federal government to cover technical and administrative costs of the anti-poverty program.

Scranton requested the sum Washington Wednesday and at the same time directed his own administration to survey existing programs which might be brought under the new federal program.

"Pennsylvania has been geared for definitive action against poverty for a long time," said Scranton. "It is imperative that we now move speedily to implement those programs."

Says Pa. Is Lacking In Govt. Contracts

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pennsylvania businessmen aren't getting their share of government contracts and it's their own fault, says James E. Van Zandt.

Van Zandt, former congressman now serving as Gov. Scranton's representative to the Defense Department, said Wednesday night that state businessmen aren't getting their share because of their lack of interest.

"Such apathy makes no contribution to the determined effort to increase Pennsylvania's share of government contract dollars," he told a meeting of the Smaller Manufacturers Council.

On The House

By ANDY LANG
The Associated Press

Painting the outside of your house? Or one of the rooms? Here are 10 things to keep in mind:

1. Preparing the surface properly is at least 50 per cent of the final result. This includes the removal of dust, dirt and grease scraping away loose paint; filling cracks and holes; dulling glossy areas, and building up low spots.

2. If you apply the final coat before the undercoat has dried thoroughly, it will be only a few months before fine hairline cracks develop. This condition, known as "checking," occurs because the undercoat remains elastic and so begins to move as the wood underneath contracts and expands.

3. There are probably more paint failures in the kitchen than anywhere else, usually caused by not removing all the grease that has accumulated over the years.

4. Forget about an all-purpose paint which will be best for all conditions. Such a paint usually is very effective for some surfaces, fair for others and just adequate for still others. For the best result, get a paint designed to be very effective for the particular project you are undertaking.

5. The ceiling in a room should be painted first. Don't make the mistake of deciding only to paint the walls, then discovering later that the ceiling, which appeared to be all right before you started suddenly seems to be dingy.

6. Remember that color seems deeper when applied to large surfaces such as walls. Select a color one shade lighter than you want it to be.

7. Two thin or ordinary coats of paint usually will wear better than one thick coat.

8. Most amateur painters get only about one-tenth as much wear out of a brush as is built into it. The chief reason: failure to clean the brush properly immediately after it has been used.

9. Don't paint with a brush previously used for varnish. It has a tendency to give the paint a cloudy appearance.

10. There isn't much difference between quality paints and cheap inferior paints immediately after the applications. The difference shows up weeks and months later when failures begin to develop in the inferior paint.

Film Paris, USA For French Firm

Paris, Ky. (AP) — "We are tourists in Paris," the two Parisians said. And they proceeded to take lots of pictures. The two were representatives of Gaumont Actualities of Paris, France, and they were filming a sequence for television about Paris, U.S.A.

They photographed Stoner Creek here (to compare it with the Seine) and said they would like to visit "Le A&P" supermarket.

They left here for Paris, Tenn., and planned to continue on to Paris, Tex.

Basketball Star Breaks Thousand

MIDDLETOWN, Conn. (AP) — Winthrop (Winky) Davenport Jr., a senior from Binghamton, N.Y., is Wesleyan University's first basketball player to score more than 1,000 points.

His mother, Mrs. Winthrop Davenport Sr., was present the night he broke the 1,000-point barrier last season.

Winky's three-year total was 1,041 points in 53 games. The previous mark was 969 in 64 games by Don Skinner during the 1958-59 campaign.

Fateful Confrontation Seen Building Up Between Russia And Red Chinese, Scribe Says

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Diplomatic Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev possesses a notable power to agitate and alarm the Western allies. He needs only to issue a murky claim to the invention of some monstrous new weapon to set off a vast search for clues that could throw light on his dark secret. Whether he similarly arouses the apprehensions of the Chinese Communists is a question.

The conflict between two closed systems like those of the Soviet Union and Red China, where whole peoples exist in such secrecy as their leaders decree, is different from a conflict between the Soviet Union and the Western allies.

In the West, interested citizens join in open discussion of foreign policy issues. Their leaders are more or less responsive to demands for information. Even Khrushchev has sometimes shown a talkative awareness of public opinion in the Western countries.

HARD TO CHART

The most fateful confrontation of powers since the U.S.-Soviet showdown over Cuba in October 1962 now seems to be building up between the Soviet Union and Communist China. But so little is known outside their two ruling groups about the real nature and extent of this quarrel that its future course and possible flash point are extremely difficult to chart.

Much more would be known in the outside world if Khrushchev and the Red Chinese leader, Mao Tse-tung, felt any compulsion to keep their own people closely informed. Their practice, however, throughout the five years the conflict has been growing, has been to employ public pronouncement only as weapons in the fight.

Much of the struggle, therefore, is for practical purposes secret and even the impact and significance of those moves which are made in the open are extremely difficult for the rest of the world to measure. So it is with the maneuver made this week by Khrushchev, although in the judgment of many Washington officials his words had a warlike ring.

ATTACKS CHINESE CLAIMS

Speaking to a Japanese parliamentary delegation, Khrushchev attacked Chinese claims to 500,000 square miles of Soviet territory. He said Soviet borders are sacred, and he asserted that the Soviet Union has developed a new weapon capable of wiping out life on earth.

His statement instantly raised the question whether the Soviet Union has gained a jump on the United States in the perfection of some instrument of mass destruction — a cobalt bomb, a bigger hydrogen bomb, or some kind of mysterious new weapon like a massive death ray device.

American officials familiar with military and diplomatic intelligence on affairs in the Soviet Union say there are speculative possibilities but that to the best of their knowledge the Russians have not produced any fantastic new weapon. They concede, however, that prudence requires the United States now to find out whether Khrushchev meant literally what he said.

FIRST RED THREAT

But Khrushchev's weapon-brandishing remark was not aimed as a threat against this or any other Western country and in the view of experts here an exclusive preoccupation with the weapons angle would obscure its real significance. Of critical importance, in the view of U.S. officials, is the fact that for the first time, so far as they could recall, Khrushchev has implicitly threatened his Chinese neighbors — still technically his allies — with massive destruction if they ever start encroaching on Soviet territory.

To Western experts, his maneuver suggests that the Sino-Soviet conflict is not only deep and irreversible, but that it may be moving into a new and more dangerous phase. The one possible modification in what he is reported by the Japanese to have said is that he could claim, if he wished, at some future time, that he was misunder-

Politics

REPUBLICAN~DEMOCRAT

By WALTER R. MEARS

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, urging Southern Democrats to cross the Republican welcome mat, takes his presidential campaign to the Carolinas today after calling for elimination of earmarked federal grants to cities and states.

Instead, the Republican nominee told a whopping, flag-waving crowd of about 25,000 in Montgomery, Ala., Wednesday night the federal government should return a share of income taxes to the states.

The Arizona senator said unrestricted grants should go to local and state governments that need them.

He charged the current system of federal aid has made states and communities "subservient to a huge federal bureaucracy with its center in the White House."

ACCUSES JOHNSON

He accused President Johnson of telling members of Congress, "You vote with me or your project doesn't get built."

Goldwater, stumping the South for the third day, said he was "very pleased, extremely encouraged" by the crowds that have turned out.

He found one waiting in Raleigh late Wednesday night. A crowd of several hundred people swarmed around his airplane when it pulled to a stop after the flight from Montgomery.

Goldwater used a yellow bull horn to tell them, "It's wonderful of you to be out this late in the evening."

All day long, Goldwater told Southerners that Democratic Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina had shown "political courage" by switching his allegiance to the GOP.

The printing industry receives its greatest revenue from advertising and gets a major share of the more than nine billion dollars spent by American business for advertising each year.

stood, or that his views were misrepresented.

Before making a final judgment, U.S. analysts were waiting to see what, if anything, the Soviet press would say about his remarks to the Japanese.

By FRANK CORMIER

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — President Johnson, arguing for continued White House control of nuclear weapons, says the United States has taken "every step man can devise to ensure that neither a madman nor a malfunction could trigger nuclear war."

This was Johnson's principal message here Wednesday before heading South today to Portland, Ore., to plug for "a new conservation" and to hail cooperative efforts between public and private power companies.

The President dealt in detail with the nuclear war question in a Seattle address at a hotel dinner sponsored by three area colleges and the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

Although he never once alluded, even indirectly, to Republican rival Barry Goldwater, he apparently felt that on the nuclear topic he had something going for him, since it was his second speech in 10 days to feature the subject.

As he did in Detroit on Labor Day, Johnson said control over nuclear weapons "must be centralized in the hands of the highest and most responsible officer of government — the President of the United States."

Goldwater has contended that some way must be found to turn over control of battlefield nuclear weapons to one multinational command of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. NATO's present nuclear stockpile is under American authority.

Vatican Council Ponders Title Of Honor For Mary

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council was asked today to assign a new title of honor to the Virgin Mary. But bishops debating the issue in St. Peter's Basilica disagreed on what the title should be.

Requests for a new title for the mother of Christ were raised a day after groups of council fathers warned against exaggerated devotion to Mary. The question of Marian devotion long has been a stumbling block to closer Roman Catholic-Protestant ties.

Some of the council fathers speaking today said they thought devotion to Mary could further Christian unity.

SUGGEST TITLES

The titles suggested were "Mother of the Church," "Mother of all mankind," "Mary the Mediatrix," "Mary protectress and help of Christians." And "Mary the mother of all believers."

Speakers among the 16 prelates who debated the issue today included several Latin-American bishops who favored giving Mary as strong a title as possible.

Devotion to Mary is especially widespread in Latin America, although many Church leaders there have expressed increasing concern about it. A group of 45 prelates from Latin-American countries Wednesday called excessive Marian devotion a "scandal."

MAY BE EXTENDED

As the council's third session moved along with its work, reliable sources said it may be extended past its scheduled November closing to become the final session.

The sources stressed, however, this will depend on how far the 2,500 Roman Catholic prelates get in their discussion and voting by the scheduled Nov. 20 closing date.

The directors of the council — the General Secretariat headed by an Italian archbishop, the council moderating panel of five cardinals and Pope Paul VI — were said to favor keeping the council in session if it appears that the remaining work can be finished before Christmas.

NEW CHURCH MEET

The third session was given a closing date in November because an international eucharistic congress, a major Roman Catholic spiritual meeting held every four years in a different city, is to open Nov. 28 in Bombay, India.

The sources said only 500 bishops had signed up to go to absence of 500 bishops would not seriously disrupt continued council work by the remaining 2,000 bishops.

The council fathers were told this week that they must speed up their work and waste no time disposing of the 13 schemata, or topics, still before them.

The key topics, setting the tone of the entire council, deal with the sharing of some papal powers with the church's bishops, a concept that is called collegiality.

YOUTH FLIES TO FREEDOM

LUENEBURG, Germany (AP) — A young East German skipped to West Germany today aboard a small sports plane he piloted in a one-hour flight across the border, police here reported.

The refugee, Manfred Lorenz, 23, an electro-mechanic, asked for asylum.

He told police after landing the plane on open farmland that he came from the town of Anklam in the East German province of Mecklenburg.

Police corrected an earlier Defense Department report from Bonn that the plane was Soviet and piloted by a Soviet sergeant. The Defense Department said the error resulted from the fact that the plane Lorenz landed in the district of Uelzen this morning came from Anklam, where the Russians maintain an air base.

Athens Taxi Driver's Mistake Lands American Newsman At Royal Party

By EDDY GILMORE

ATHENS, Greece, (AP) — A language misunderstanding with a Greek taxi driver landed this country boy from Alabama smack in the midst of royalty Wednesday night at King Constantine's state ball.

Armed with an invitation from Queen Mother Frederika, I left my hotel with my Russian-born wife Tamara and told the taxi driver in bad Greek: "To the royal palace, please."

Instead of delivering us to the palace, the driver took us to the King George Hotel, reserved this week for kings, queens and other royal guests in Athens for the wedding Friday of Greece's young king to Princess Anne-Marie of Denmark.

HORRIBLE MISTAKE

At the hotel I realized a horrible mistake had been made and told the head porter my situation.

"It doesn't matter," he said with a laugh. "Just come with me."

As about 5,000 Greeks looked on, he ushered us to one of the palace limousines and sent us to the party.

The driver turned on the lights and we moved slowly toward the palace, crowds of Greeks cheering every foot of the way.

TAKEN FOR KING

"That's King Farouk," yelled someone.

Beside a hedge at the palace, frock-coated officials bent low and kissed Tamara's hand.

Behind ex-King Umberto of Italy, we walked forward, ambassadors and ministers bowing every foot of the way.

Finally it got too much.

"Excuse me, but where in the hell am I supposed to go?" I asked a court official as we neared the head of the line.

NO TURNING BACK

"Who are you, sir?" he asked. "Just a very plain American," I replied. "Some taxi driver has really bugged us."

"Bugged you, sir?" he asked, sweeping us on toward an open pavilion inside the palace grounds.

There was no turning back.

FREDERIKA NICE

Behind Umberto we approached the pavilion where King Constantine and Princess Anne-Marie sat with Queen Mother Frederika.

Frederika could not have been nicer.

She probably wondered how Tamara and I got sandwiched between kings and queens, but she never showed it.

"Tino," she said to her son, "I want you to meet —"

From then on we were eating very high off the hog.

The Gettysburg chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution along with other chapters throughout the state and nation will celebrate "Constitution Week" beginning on Thursday.

The chapter has suggested that the U. S. Constitution means all of these things to citizens of this nation:

It establishes for you a stable and responsible government.

It makes you a citizen of the United States, if native born.

It gives you citizenship, if foreign born, on complying with liberal naturalization laws.

It allows you a voice in the government through the officials whom you help to elect. It guarantees you life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

It defends your rights even against the government itself.

It makes you equal with all men before the law. It confirms your religious freedom, and liberty of conscience.

It accords you free, lawful speech.

It guarantees you together with all people the right of peaceable assembly.

It permits you to petition the government to right your wrongs.

It guards your property rights.

It prohibits the government from taking your property without due process of law.

It lets you hold any office in the gift of the nation for which you are qualified.

It enables you to become a citizen of any state.

It prevents you from being held to answer to a complaint unless you have been lawfully accused.

It insures your right of trial by jury of your fellow men.

It grants you the right of habeas corpus, that is, the right to know why you are held a prisoner.

It assures you a speedy trial.

It permits your having counsel for defense. It prevents your being tried again if once acquitted.

It permits you to have a trial in the state and district in which you may be charged with an offense against the laws.

It lends you the power of government to compel witnesses to appear in your behalf.

It relieves you from compulsion to testify against yourself.

It forbids excessive bail.

It forbids excessive fines or cruel punishment.

It protects you from slavery in any form.

ON STATE BOARD

HARRISBURG (AP) — Irving Hand of Nashville, Tenn., was named executive director of the State Planning Board Wednesday.

Hand, currently planning director for the Nashville Metropolitan Planning Commission, replaces Francis A. Pitkin, who recently resigned after 30 years with the Pennsylvania board.

Pitkin was first appointed to the staff of the State Planning Board in 1934 by Gov. Gifford Pinchot.

MANILA (AP) — Remnants of the Communist Huk rebels who tried to overthrow the Philippine government a decade ago now operate a Mafia-like protection racket, the Defense Department says.

The department said Huk commanders, while no longer a threat to national security, have grown prosperous extorting money from victims in Luzon Island's central plain.

"They also raise funds through benefit balls, beauty contests and other money-making gimmicks," the statement said.

The rebels reportedly killed 23 persons in central Luzon last year. Most were farmers who refused to be intimidated.

SAYS BOYCOTT IS EXPECTED TO CONTINUE

NEW YORK (AP)—A leader of the two-day white boycott says hundreds of pupils will remain away indefinitely from the right public schools directly affected by a controversial part of an integration program.

The program provides for an exchange of pupils between each of the four pairs of schools to racially balance the enrollments.

The citywide boycott Monday and Tuesday saw more than twice the normal 100,000 absences. Wednesday was Yom Kippur, a Jewish holy day and school holiday.

Whether to continue the boycott of the eight schools divided the two main sponsors of the citywide boycott. The Joint Council for Better Education urged that all children return to school. The Parents and Taxpayers Coordinating Council urged a continuing boycott at the eight schools, where pupils were transferred outside their neighborhoods.

About 2,300 pupils are affected in the eight schools.

The two groups are virtually all-white. They say they don't oppose integration as such, but object to methods that mean the forced transfers of pupils to schools outside their neighborhoods.

GOLDWATER TO VISIT JERSEY

TRENTON, N.J. (AP)—Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate will visit New Jersey the week of Oct. 4 "unless unexpected changes in his national itinerary force a revision."

Republican State Chairman Webster B. Todd said Wednesday in announcing Goldwater's visit that the Republican National Committee regards New Jersey as a key state because of its 17 electoral votes.

Todd said the national committee plans to "do everything possible to carry it and are attempting to schedule as early a visit in October as possible."

Republican leaders also announced at the same time that Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, who sought to wrest his party's nomination from Goldwater, will campaign Sept. 28 in New Jersey for the Arizona senator.

Scranton's itinerary is being arranged now and will include an appearance at a $25-a-plate dinner in Cherry Hill, sponsored by the Burlington County Committee. One of Scranton's stops will be in Essex County, Todd said.

Bike Rider Is Killed By Truck

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richard E. MacDonald Jr., 8, was injured fatally Wednesday night when he was thrown from a bicycle under the wheels of a truck tractor in a collision.

Another boy, John Green, 12, was admitted to St. Mary's Hospital with a broken leg, a possible broken hip and possible internal injuries.

The MacDonald boy, police said, was riding on the handle bars of the bike, operated by the Green boy.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

David O. McKay, ninth president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, has lived by his favorite quotation from Edwin Markham's "A Creed."

"There is a destiny which makes us brothers;
None lives to self alone;
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own."

When he was a young man, an elder gave him a blessing, saying: "You will be a leader among men, indeed, president of the Church some day." This had a lasting effect upon him as he served God and men in church positions all over the world. He became president in 1951. Still, at age 91, the spiritual leader of two and a half million Mormons, McKay says, "Faith in man is the power that leads to brotherhood; faith in God, the ladder by which men climb toward perfection."

Advocates Controls On Both Sides Of Curtain

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP)—Gen. Lauris Norstad said today that a system of control and inspection on both sides of the Iron Curtain could reduce tensions in Europe without any reductions of weapons or military manpower.

The former supreme Allied commander in Europe also advocated that the United States, Britain and France — the only powers that can supply nuclear weapons for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization — be given authority to decide whether NATO should take nuclear action to resist an enemy.

Norstad's comments were prepared for delivery at the opening of an international symposium, a part of the three-day Mayo centennial celebration. The theme of the symposium is "Man's Adaptation to His Expanding Environment."

COULD LIFT FEAR

He asserted that a continuing "fact-finding" system of control and inspection in Europe could lift the fear of surprise air and ground attack without disturbing the balance of power and establish a foundation for greater understanding and for further action in the disarmament field.

The former NATO commander said every new disarmament proposal has met opposition reflecting fears that any reduction or arms limitation would disturb the existing balance and result in one-sided, dangerous weakness.

"Reduction of military manpower, limitations on weapons, the other steps we consider within the subject of disarmament are only means to an end," he said. "We take as our purpose the lifting of the burden of fear, we seek to enhance our security, we aim to guarantee our freedom. In short, our purpose is peace."

PROVIDES FOR INSPECTOR

Norstad said such an agreement should provide for both mobile ground and aerial inspection and perhaps overlapping radar surveillance which would permit the Western powers to look into the eastern satellites and beyond into the western Soviet Union.

Under the plan, he said, the Western powers would grant the Soviets a corresponding privilege.

U. S. JETS ARE READY TO ACT IN S. VIET NAM

By JOHN T. WHEELER

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—The U.S. Air Force commander in Viet Nam said today his jet fighters would act if Cambodian or any other foreign aircraft commit hostile acts against South Viet Nam.

Maj. Gen. Joseph Moore said in an interview that U.S. pilots and unit commanders were fully briefed on carefully laid down rules of engagement in case foreign aircraft cross the Vietnamese border.

Moore declined to spell out under just what circumstances U.S. fighters would engage in combat. He said this would let unfriendly forces know how much they might get away with.

WILL DEFEND NATION

Other sources said it could be assumed that if Cambodian jets fired on Vietnamese aircraft or ground positions, U.S. jets would be sent up to defend the government forces.

They added that should Communist Chinese or North Vietnamese planes streak across the border, they could expect immediate engagement. U. S. jet fighters are stationed at Da Nang, 90 miles from North Viet Nam and 160 miles from Red China's Hainan Island.

Moore was asked what the Air Force would do if Cambodia's Russian-made MIG jets again cross into Vietnamese air space and attack Vietnamese prop-driven planes as the Vietnamese say they did on Sept. 3.

NC CONTACT

U.S. Air Force F102s based at Saigon airport were sent up then, but did not make contact.

During a recent Vietnamese army operation near the Cambodian border, four F102s flew over the area. An American adviser said they were covering the vulnerable Vietnamese fighter-bombers and U.S. Army helicopters supporting the operation.

Moore said the flight was routine.

He said the U.S. Air Force's orders were clear on the subject of hostile foreign aircraft.

"If any foreign aircraft commits a hostile act against this country we will assist in the defense of the country."

PROMISES TO SEEK END TO ATTACK FEAR

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home's Conservatives promised today to seek to end the world's aching fear of surprise attack if their party wins the Oct. 15 election.

In an election manifesto, the Conservatives also promised to work with the United States, the Soviet Union and other powers for safe general disarmament and to halt the spread of nuclear weapons.

The party pledged, however, to keep Britain's independent nuclear deterrent which it described as a "vital contribution to Britain's diplomacy and defense." The opposition Labor party is pledged to abandon Britain's nuclear weapons.

MODERNIZATION PROGRAM

Douglas-Home told a news conference his party is presenting a domestic program for the modernization of Britain. The opposition Labor party's platform last week made the same claim.

"The difference between Socialist planning and our planning is government by compulsion and government by consent," Douglas-Home said.

The Conservative program calls for an annual four per cent expansion in Britain's national wealth, creation of an industrial research and development authority, doubling spending on road building, and an early start on the channel tunnel between Britain and France.

MORATORIUM REQUESTED ON CLOUD SEEDING

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—State Sen. George E. Snyder, D-Washington, has asked orchardists for a two-year moratorium on cloud seeding in the county.

Washington County is suffering from a drought and dirt and dairy farmers have advanced the theory that cloud seeding with silver iodide, designed to prevent hail damage to orchards, may have stopped the rain.

Snyder also said Wednesday he plans to introduce bills in the General Assembly to outlaw cloud seeding during the two years.

Snyder said he asked for the moratorium in a letter to Fred L. Glazie Jr., president of the Blue Ridge Weather Modification Assn., Winchester, Va.

BUYS SERVICES

The association buys the services of Dr. Wallace E. Howell, Bedford, Mass., meteorologist whose company has been seeding clouds for two years in western Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Snyder, noting "temperers are high" among dirt and dairy farmers, said he hoped a moratorium would "give enough time to determine who's right."

"The orchardists went for many decades without the use of cloud seeding," Snyder said, adding that they could do without the practice for two years.

Howell has said he would stop his seeding if experts can prove the practice also stops rain.

900 SACKS OF MAIL BURN

BORDENTOWN, N.J. (AP)—A tractor-trailer carrying 900 sacks of parcel post mail caught fire on the New Jersey Turnpike today. An estimated 85 per cent of the mail, much of it books, was destroyed.

The trailer, operated by a contract hauler, was southbound from Jersey City to Philadelphia when it lost a right rear wheel. The fire on the remaining right rear wheel shredded.

Carlos Garcia, 52, of New York City, the driver, said he stopped for repairs and placed flares behind the rig.

As repairs were being made, fragments of the shredded tire were ignited by the flares.

Bordentown firemen responded to the alarm at 2:35 a.m. and were still wetting down the cargo at daybreak.

R. E. Harvey, postal inspector of the Philadelphia district, said the remaining cargo would be brought to Philadelphia for inventory and salvage.

SAFE WALKING TIPS

DRINKING AND WALKING
Drinking and walking are a lethal mixture—nearly as dangerous as drinking and driving.

In fact, a 16-year study of highway fatalities in Cleveland showed that 20 per cent of the pedestrians killed in traffic accidents had blood alcohol concentrations as high as 0.20 per cent or more. As a depressant, alcohol deadens your senses and reduces your alertness, whether you are behind the wheel or going shank's mare.

Here's advice on the subject from the American Automobile Association: If you have been drinking, find some way other than walking on busy downtown streets to get home. Take a cab or have someone else drive your car. Don't walk.

YOUNG PRINCE MEETS JOHNSON
SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—A young prince met a president Wednesday and both seemed pleased by the encounter.

Andy Prince, 10, wore a No. 1 official "Airport Welcome" badge issued by the Secret Service and he was one of the first persons to greet President Johnson.

Andy got the choice position because of a news story telling how he cried when he found the $10 ticket he planned to purchase for the President's evening appearance would not let him into the room where the President spoke. Johnson officials arranged the airport welcome.

"Hi," said Andy.

"Hi," replied the President.

They both smiled warmly.

Three Hanley Plays Head For Broadway

NEW YORK (AP)—Three plays by William Hanley are being considered by assorted sponsors for early Broadway presentation.

Hanley, who attracted attention initially off-broadway with "Mrs. Dally Has a Lover" has expanded that short script into full-length form as one of the prospects. The others are "Conversations in the Dark," which was withdrawn for revision by the Theater Guild during tryout last season, and "Slow Dance on the Killing Ground."

SECOND FLOOR,

PRINCESS AND YOUNG KING WED IN ATHENS

By EDDY GILMORE

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A teen-age princess and a young king wed here Friday to stop a week of gay and regal ceremony made more colorful by the ancient grandeur of this sun-drenched land.

Since last Friday, King Constantine, 24, of Greece, and Denmark's pretty Princess Anne-Marie, 18, have set a fast and foot-aching royal pace.

TIRING RECEPTIONS

For that party, the foreign guests who included kings, queens, princes and princesses in large but unassorted numbers, brought in several million dollars worth of jewels, tiaras and handmade gowns.

The most tiring events of the week, however, must have been the three folksy receptions that King Constantine held at Tatoi Palace 18 miles from Athens.

The receptions were open to all who could make the hot and dusty journey to the palace in its country setting.

The people came on foot, on bicycles, in cars, in buses and even on mules.

ROUGH ON FLOWERS

They showered the young couple with good wishes, and the couple seemed to like it. But it was rough on the royal flower beds.

The tall, handsome king has both a craving for speed and an eye for beauty.

He chose his "girl from the north" during his sister's wedding in Athens more than two years ago. Anne-Marie, a shy beauty, was a guest at the wedding then of Princess Sophie to Spanish Crown Prince Juan Carlos.

QUIT FAST DRIVING

After their engagement in January 1963, the couple set their wedding for 1965, but it was advanced after the death of Constantine's father, King Paul, earlier this year.

When his father died, Constantine immediately ascended the throne. Strict upbringing by his German-born mother, Queen Frederika, and the democratic philosophy of his late father helped him prepare to rule this nation of 8.5 million. He quit fast driving.

FIRST OWN DECISION

Of his decision to become engaged to Anne-Marie he disclosed at the time:

"Our engagement was sudden, not planned beforehand by our parents. It was the first time in my life I took a decision without asking my father."

Anne-Marie, brought up close to her family, is the youngest of three girls. She was reared in the democratic manner typical of Scandinavian royalty. She attended Copenhagen's schools just like any other Dane. She sewed and often designed and made her own clothes.

Anne-Marie has a pleasant, capturing smile and soft-spoken voice.

She also has a love for speed — but on skis.

WILKINSON QUILTS U. S. JUSTICE DEPT.

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

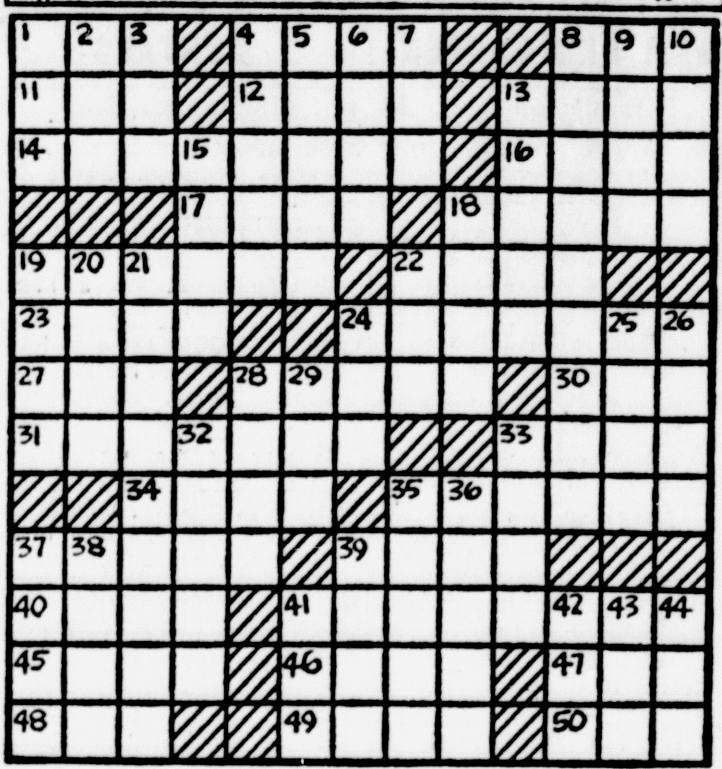

WASHINGTON (AP) — The man who escorted Russian spy Rudolf Abel to the Iron Curtain in 1962 to exchange him for American U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers has left government service after more than two decades with the Bureau of Prisons.

Fred T. Wilkinson, a former Marine, who entered the Federal Prison Service in 1938 as a correctional officer at the Atlanta Penitentiary, resigned, effective last Saturday, as deputy director of the bureau, a part of the Justice Department. Wilkinson is credited with initiating many prison reforms and was selected in 1956 as one of the 10 top federal civil service employees in the nation.

CHOSE ALEXANDER

Wilkinson had been mentioned as a possible successor to James V. Bennett, who retired last month as bureau director, but the Justice Department chose Myrl E. Alexander. Alexander retired as assistant director of the Prison Bureau in 1961 to become professor of sociology at Southern

Plans Talks On Racial Tensions

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton is calling on municipal officials to attend an institute on local government responsibility in racial and community tensions Nov. 8 and 9 at Hershey.

Scranton said Wednesday the institute at the State Police Academy is another in a series of steps being taken by his administration to help keep racial peace and law and order.

More than 1,300 state and local police already have attended similar institutes in the state the governor said, adding that he expected 200 municipal and state officials to attend the Hershey meeting.

Scranton will address the closing session.

Illinois University. "I didn't feel we had to draft Wilkinson said in an interview a retiree to run the system," at his burban Bethesda, Md., home.

Although he and Alexander are good friends, Wilkinson said their philosophies of prison management differ.

"I like to work directly with the prisoners and the bureau employees," Wilkinson said. "... he deals a lot on theory and task force meetings."

It was Wilkinson's work with prisoners that led to reforms in the federal prison system sometimes referred to as the Wilkinson plan.

The first sinking of a warship occurred a hundred years ago. The Confederate undersea craft "H. L. Hunley" sank the "Housatonic" off Charleston, S.C., but was itself swamped and lost in the action.

SPEED-UP IN PA. HIGHWAY PLANS URGED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton says there is a need for a major speed-up in highway programming and planning in Pennsylvania, especially in regard to urban areas.

His directive was issued Tuesday after six weeks of study on future highway needs by the State Highways Department. The governor had ordered the study.

"In many ways Pennsylvania can be extremely proud of the rate of progress we have been making in highway construction," Scranton said in a statement.

LACK PLANS, FUNDS

"But any realistic study will show that we have not had in the past several years, we do not have now, and will not have in the immediate future, either the programming or sufficient funds to build roads as fast as they are needed."

"We must remember," Scranton continued, "that urban areas need extra lanes of pavement to adequately handle their heavier concentration of traffic. A bridge serving an urban area may handle 100 times the traffic of a structure in a less densely populated area, but it frequently costs 10 times more to build."

The governor noted that urban roads are financed 50 per cent by the federal government, whereas 90 per cent of the funds for interstate highways come from Washington.

COSTLY BUSINESS

"Right-of-way costs in built-up urban areas frequently drive the price of new highway construction into staggering multi-million dollar costs per mile. One mile of highway presently planned for Philadelphia is estimated to cost $35 million."

Scranton said the Highways Department's study brought him to "the inescapable conclusion that because of the heavy needs and high costs of future highway construction, particularly in the urban areas, Pennsylvania must face the fact that no one generation of motorists can afford to pay for all of our highway needs."

"Even with the most scientific allocations, there will not be enough money to do the job," Scranton said. "Therefore I am directing the Highways Department now to enlarge the programs. That leaves for future planning and planning of high-ways the decision of financing construction, but at least the two-year lag of programming and planning will be solved."

SEES MORE BORROWING

Sheriff's Office Gettysburg, Pa. August 26, 1964

TO ALL PARTIES IN INTEREST AND CLAIMANTS: You are notified that a schedule of distribution will be filed by the Sheriff in his office on October 9, 1964, and distribution will be made in accordance with said schedule, unless exceptions are filed thereto within 10 days after the filing thereof. Purchaser must settle for property on or before filing date.

All claims to property must be filed with Sheriff before sale.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

NEW YORK (AP) — You've got a pretty fair memory if you can look back and remember when—

The only frozen food people ate was ice cream—and they often froze it themselves.

REMEMBER WALLY?

Wallace Beery was getting rich from pictures that usually ended with him wiping a tear from his eye and saying, "Aw, shucks!"

When you told a fellow a funny story, he'd snap his suspenders with his thumbs to show his appreciation.

Rich kids had stamp collections; poor kids made collections of cigar bands stripped from stubs they found in the street.

EVILS OF GAMBLING

You first learned the evils of gambling by playing marbles for keeps.

All fat men were supposed to be naturally jolly—and not suffering from neuroses that caused them to eat compulsively.

It was a popular parlor sport to try to get messages from the spirit world via ouija boards.

When a housewife tied a cloth around her head, you knew she was in the throes of spring cleaning.

DOMESTIC ESTEEM

Men openly took sandwiches to the office in metal lunch boxes instead of hiding them in expensive leather attache cases.

Summer wasn't really summer until the whole family had its first watermelon of the season on the back porch.

Women were esteemed more for the quality of the pies they baked than the style of clothes they wore. A really good cook prided herself on the fact she never served her husband "store bread."

Grown men who played golf or tennis were regarded as somewhat sissy.

TIPS A SURPRISE

When a young man left home to make his fortune in the city, his father always warned him never to play pool with strangers.

If you tipped a waitress, she looked surprised.

CURLS AND MATRIMONY

The biggest financial problem of most small boys was how to raise the money to take a secret course in ventriloquism by mail.

Everybody had heard of Karl Marx and Sigmund Freud, but they weren't sure which was which.

BEATIFICATION TOPIC BEFORE ROME COUNCIL

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council heard an appeal Wednesday to create more Roman Catholic saints from all walks and races of life.

There also were warnings against exaggerated devotion to the Virgin Mary.

Leo Jozef Cardinal Suenens of Brussels told the 2,500 council fathers in St. Peter's Basilica that national bishop groups should have power to beatify in their own regions, instead of leaving this to the Vatican. Beatification is a step toward canonization as a saint.

The Belgian cardinal complained that too few laymen and too few non-Europeans have been declared saints by the Roman Catholic Church.

Augustin Cardinal Bea, the top Vatican Christian unity expert, told Paul Emile Cardinal Legier of Montreal, and many Latin American bishops argued against excessive devotion to Mary.

Cardinal Bea in effect told the council that excessive devotion was a barrier to Christian unity efforts.

A press spokesman of the council, who briefed newsmen on the closed proceedings in the basilica, quoted Cardinal Bea as saying such excesses "cause serious difficulties for our separate brethren."

OPPOSING VIEWS

By the narrow margin of 1,114-1,074, the council voted last year to include Mary's role in the redemption of mankind within the schema De Ecclesia, on the nature of the Church rather than making it the subject of a separate schema.

The minority contended that to include the Marian topic in the more general schema would lessen Mary's position of veneration.

Opponents argued that a separate schema would put undue emphasis on Mary's position. Several bishops said Catholics in some parts of Latin America already tend to place Mary on a plane with Christ.

The subject is of particular importance to leaders in the Christian unity movement, since many Protestants think Catholic veneration of Mary sometimes approaches worship.

TO INCREASE HOUSE DINING ROOM PRICES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Patrons of the House of Representatives' dining rooms got some bad news Wednesday.

While the taxpayers pick up the tab for an estimated operating loss of $240,000 this fiscal year, the diners will have to pay more for their food.

The cost of the No. 5 lunch, commonly known as the Blue-plate, will go up from 90 cents to $1.15 next January and the customary dessert will be replaced by a tossed salad.

The price of the home-cured corned beef meal will be hiked from 95 cents to $1.25, including the standard potato salad.

Baked ham and two vegetables will sell for $1.15 instead of $1.

"A pretty good sized hamburger" with all the trimmings will peddle for 70 cents instead of 60.

OTHER BOOSTS

Seafood and steak platters will go up, too, the House Appropriations Committee said, but the committee had no specific figures on these.

It also disclosed that the estimated operating losses for restaurant facilities in the new Rayburn Office Building, which won't serve any meals until next January, will be $62,600 for the fiscal year ending next June 30.

That's less than half of the estimated operating loss of $177,600 for dining facilities in the House wing of the Capitol.

The committee got its information from Kermit A. Cowan, who manages House restaurants for the Capitol architect. The deficits have been going on for years.

The restaurants are used by House members, their guests, Capitol employees and newsmen.

Governor Wins Third Term Bid

SEATTLE (AP) — Gov. Albert D. Rosellini will face Daniel J. Evans, House floor leader in the last state legislature, in November's gubernatorial election.

The Democratic governor, seeking an unprecedented third consecutive term, was an easy winner in Tuesday's primary, turning back four contenders.

Evans, a Seattle engineer, defeated Richard G. Christensen, a former Lutheran minister who lost narrowly to veteran Sen. Warren G. Magnuson in 1962, for the Republican nomination.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson won the Democratic nomination for senator with ease. He will be opposed by Lloyd J. Andrews, former state superintendent of public instruction, in November.

Senate Liberal Democrats To Continue Talk Against Reapportionment Motion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Liberal Democrats in the Senate said today they would continue talking against a move to delay court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures until they are able to sidetrack the proposal.

They said they still hoped the proposal sponsored by Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen could be replaced by a milder substitute despite failure to do so in a tight 42-40 vote Tuesday.

"As long as we stay here and talk," said Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., "we are going to win. And we are prepared to stay here and talk."

DELAYS ADJOURNMENT
The continuing stalemate threatens to delay congressional adjournment indefinitely—possibly even until just before the Nov. 3 election at which all House and 35 Senate seats will be at stake.

The Dirksen proposal would delay for at least one year court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures to get in line with the Supreme Court's ruling that both houses be apportioned according to population.

Dirksen offered it as a rider to the $3.3-billion foreign-aid authorization bill in order to ward off a possible presidential veto. Dirksen is convinced he has enough votes to adopt it if it can be brought to a vote.

BACK COMPROMISE

The liberals, talking to prevent a vote on Dirksen's rider, joined Tuesday in backing a compromise substitute which stated it was the "sense of Congress" that reapportionment be delayed in order to give states "reasonable time" to comply with the Supreme Court's ruling or to consider a constitutional amendment to nullify or change the Court's directive.

The compromise lacked the force of Dirksen's rider, designed to prevent any further reapportionment until such a constitutional amendment can be pushed through.

In another vote Tuesday, the Senate rejected 56 to 21 an effort to replace the Dirksen rider with the tough House-passed bill to strip federal courts of a jurisdiction in state apportionment cases.

TV RECORDERS ARE BECOMING BIG BUSINESS

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON
REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—

A bright electronic youngster is helping teach jet pilots to make carrier landings, and fourth-grade students to conjugate Spanish verbs.

The youngster is television tape recording, just eight years old but a $40-million-a-year industry.

"And in five more years, the industry will be five times larger — $200-million-a-year," predicts C. Gus Grant, vice president-operations of Ampex Corp., which has supplied about 75 per cent of the television recorders used throughout the world.

SIMPLER, CHEAPER
The recorders are growing smaller, simpler, cheaper and ever more versatile, explains Grant.

When Ampex introduced videotape in 1956, the recorders cost $50,000. Compact, portable recorders brought out last year were priced at around $12,000. Educators, who had been stymied by the higher price tag, led the buy-line for the cheaper models, Ampex says. Several hundred U.S. school systems and colleges now regularly use closed-circuit television recording systems.

A lively puppet may be used to capture attention in a grammar school Spanish class. Typically, the recorder and a prepared lesson are carried by station wagon to seven schools in the same district and plugged into television receivers in up to four classrooms simultaneously.

NO QUALITY LOSS
The electronic technique of feeding pictures from a television camera to a recorder, capturing the whole thing electronically on moving magnetic tape, was adopted at the outset by networks and television stations.

The equipment permits programs broadcast in New York at 9 p.m. local time to be shown at 9 p.m. local time in Chicago, Denver and San Francisco without loss of picture quality. Today, says Ampex, about half the scheduled programs on local stations are recorded in advance.

USED BY MILITARY

Military services liked the electronic baby immediately. Now almost all U.S. Navy aircraft carriers boast television recording systems.

Cameras spotted over the ship feed pictures of each landing and take off to the recorders. The tape also carries data on flight number, data, aircraft air speed, wind velocity and even the vocal instructions of the landing signal officer.

Doctors use television recording to analyze fluoroscope pictures, moving pictures of internal organs and bones that can be studied as often as needed without overexposing patients to potentially dangerous rays.

Ampex estimates sales in the whole field of automatic document storage and retrieval will reach $1.5 billion within a decade.

The first close-up pictures of the moon were televised from Ranger 7 and radioed to earth, received and preserved on magnetic tape. The magnetic recordings were converted to film for distribution to the press and are being subjected to continuing analysis by scientists.

PEACE PLAN IS SUGGESTED FOR CYPRUS

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—President Makarios has proposed a five-point peace plan for Cyprus, including the removal of all armed posts manned by warring Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

A Turkish Cypriot spokesman declined comment on the plan. He showed skepticism over a promise by Makarios to immediately lift his economic blockade against besieged Turkish Cypriot Argas. Makarios said his government would:

1. End the economic blockade at once and allow supplies to come in from Turkey "through normal channels."

FINANCIAL AID

2. Remove all Greek Cypriot armed posts provided the Turkish Cypriots do the same.

3. Provide financial aid for resettlement and protection of Turkish Cypriots who have been forced to abandon their homes.

4. Grant a general amnesty "so that any Turkish rebel who may be under criminal charges for offenses committed during the rebellion may be relieved of any fear of arrest and punishment."

5. Accept U.N. suggestions for peace "provided such measures do not affect a political solution of the problem."

U.N. troops conveyed nine tons of food donated by Makarios to the Turkish Cypriot village of Kokkina Tuesday, but the villagers who had been described as starving refused it.

"We are Turks and we will die before we accept food from Makarios, the man who wants to kill us," a guerrilla leader told the convoy leader.

"Take back the food! Makarios the murderer!" chanted the villagers.

NAMED CHAIRMAN

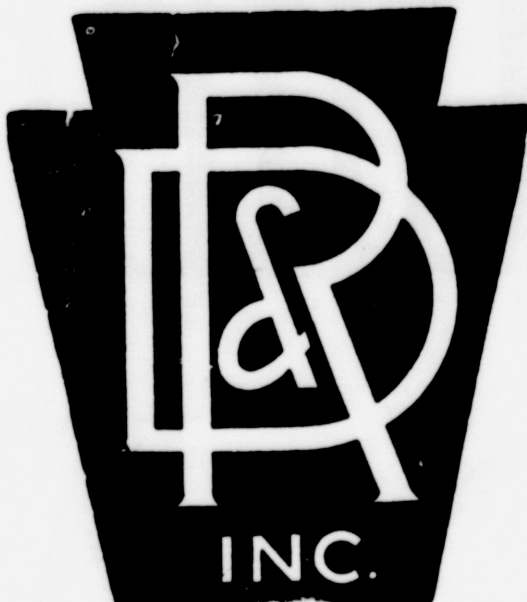

HARRISBURG (AP)—Mrs. Katharine B. Martindale of Harrisburg is the new membership chairman of the Pennsylvania Republican Club, it was announced Tuesday.

The club, under the leadership of Gov. Scranton, was organized two years ago to provide a broader base of financial support for the Republican Party.

Clothing Merchant Turns To School Teaching At 54

(Editor's Note: Despite all those years Leo Lipner applied to a successful career in the clothing business, he was at heart a frustrated teacher of mathematics. Now, at age 54, he is realizing his lifelong ambition.)

By PAUL M. DUBBS
The Centre Daily Times
BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP)—A Bellefonte merchant has realized his youthful ambition. He has been appointed a mathematics teacher at the Bellefonte Senior High School.

After several decades in the clothing business—wholesale as well as retail—Leo Lipner has become at age 54 a teacher, a profession for which he trained the hard way as a young man in New York City. For 10 years he worked days and attended school at night.

"My family is grown up and the teaching jobs, which were not available when I finished my education, are now open—so I'm going to do what I've always wanted to do, teach," he declared in an interview at the men's clothing store he has owned since 1949.

DARED TO TEACH
A school principal in New York City, who has known him since their youth, dared him a year or so ago to go to New York to teach.

"With my wife's encouragement, I took him up and taught last year in a New York City school, where discipline was a problem," Lipner said.

"I found even the 'tough guys' were not as troublesome as reputed and a few of the worst ones developed a real interest and liking for mathematics."

COMMUTED WEEKLY

For his job there, he commuted the 275-mile trip by bus, going to New York Sundays and returning to Bellefonte Friday nights. In the meantime he kept in touch with affairs at his store.

A schedule like that would be a big chore to many men, but he got used to a fast pace while he was getting his education.

"I used to leave my job with a clothing manufacturing firm at 5:45 p.m. and make a class at a night school at 6 p.m. Sometimes I had to run most of the way," he recalled.

BORN IN POLAND

Lipner was born in Poland and the only education he received until he came to the United States at the age of 11 was religious in scope.

In the United States he completed the first nine grades in four years, then began working in the clothing industry and going to night school to get a high school diploma. He continued the same way to get his bachelor's degree in mathematics at New York University in 1933 and his master's degree there in 1937.

Then, unable to get a teaching post, Lipner continued in the clothing business, advancing to an executive position before he moved to Bellefonte 15 years ago to become proprietor of the former Bob David Men's Store.

SON IS LAWYER

Lipner is married to the former Ruth Pete of Punksutawney. Their son, Alan, is a tax attorney and studying for his master's degree in law at New York University. Their daughter, Diane, is employed by American Telephone and Telegraph Co. in New York. Both Alan and Diane are graduates of Bellefonte High School and of Pennsylvania State University.

At Bellefonte High, Lipner teaches geometry, algebra, and general mathematics. He will continue to supervise the store.

Lipner is looking forward to his new job with enthusiasm. Here's how he feels about it:

"If the students enjoy the classes one half as much as I do teaching them, they'll learn a lot of mathematics!"

FERRY STRIKE TO END SOON

NEW CASTLE, Del. (AP)—Employees of the Cape May, N.J. to Lewes, Del. ferry are ready to end their strike after receiving pay raises, according to one of their leaders.

But an official of the Delaware River and Bay Authority said Tuesday it's still too soon to say when regular service will resume on the watery route across Delaware Bay.

Morris Weinstein, president of Local 14 of the International Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots, said the strikers are result of wage increases agreed ready to end their walkout as a to Tuesday.

Captains were given $25 a week raises, boosting their monthly salaries from $666.92 to about $770. Chief engineers will go from $651.85 to $755 a month and first officers from $539.67 to $620. Similar raises for other employees were also approved by the authority.

The authority had resumed partial service on the line by using nonunion and nonstriking help. The crews struck Aug. 28.

Despite the announcement of agreement Nolan Chandler, general manager of the ferry, said, "I can't say when we'll have regular service. There'll have to be a lot of talking first." Chandler and William J. Miller, director of operations for the authority, planned to meet with the captains today.

King John, who signed the Magna Carta, probably did not know how to write.

PORT WORKERS WORKING HARD

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Labor Department says that longshoremen at the port of Galveston, Tex., work too hard, but that they like it and don't want to change.

One of a series of department reports said Monday:

"It cannot be in the best interests of the health of the men to carry on hard physical labor at such a pace all day, much less day after day."

The report also disclosed that the men in Galveston resist any efforts to add more men or slow the pace of work.

The reason for the unique situation in Galveston, the department report said, is a unique pay incentive system in loading cotton.

"Men who are able to stand the pace can earn as much as $6 to $10 per hour," it said, adding: "The gang's speed is, presumably, dictated by its desire to make as much money as possible in the least amount of time."

A New Tokyo Anxiously Awaits The 18th Olympiad

By RENE-GEORGES INAGAKI
AP Newsfeatures Writer

TOKYO (AP) — Tokyo, a city with a long-awaited date — the 18th Olympiad, opening Oct. 18 — has gone through deep and extensive surgery and come up with a new face.

The plaster is only now being removed but the new face already bears the marks of much greater Western urbanity, a touch of luxury, and general prosperity.

But the operation has been long, painful and enormously costly. It took three years, tormented traffic and citizenry, and will probably run into billions of dollars.

DYNAMIC CITY

Tokyo, as the Olympic visitors will find it, is a dynamic city where the pulse of life is throbbing at a high pitch. More than 10 million people hustle and bustle all day and night and construction never seems to cease.

The magic impetus of the impending Olympiad, which Tokyo has awaited for 24 years, galvanized it into doing what was long overdue, a serious rearrangement of its congested, bumpy, narrow and twisting roads.

Now, besides a new set of splendid facilities, the city has been endowed with:

MANY NEW ROADS

Fifty-five miles of broad roads, including 15 miles of elevated freeways, an eighty-mile double track monorail, 13 miles of new subways, a one-mile-long underground passage through the center of the city.

Demolition of thousands of houses to widen the roads has provoked modern urban redevelopment, the airport terminal was expanded to double its size, and two major department stores on the famed Ginza gave themselves a complete facelift.

The old two-story shops along the Ginza are coming down one after the other, to be replaced by tall slender buildings erected on the scarce but precious estate.

Tokyo is now a city of one million cars — and no pedicabs or animal-drawn carts.

MANY ACCIDENTS

Tokyo is a city where one does not normally tip and may drink tap water, but it has the highest traffic accident rate in the world.

Tokyo is a city full of luxury hotels — four just opened — but few are in the popular price range.

Tokyo is a city of tens of thousands of cabarets, night clubs, bars, coffee shops and Turkish bathhouses, all staffed with female personnel — but has virtually no streetwalkers.

Tokyo also is the town with the largest number of restaurants and widest choice of foods in the world.

MANY RESTAURANTS

Japanese, Chinese, German, Italian, Russian, French and Korean style restaurants abound besides the masses of those serving so-called "Western food."

Tokyo is where thousands are studying English but few will understand yours, though most people will go out of their way to help if you ask them to.

Tokyo is a city with an excellent network of tramways, buses and subways but only an adventuresome newcomer will be able to use them without getting completely lost in the city's immensity.

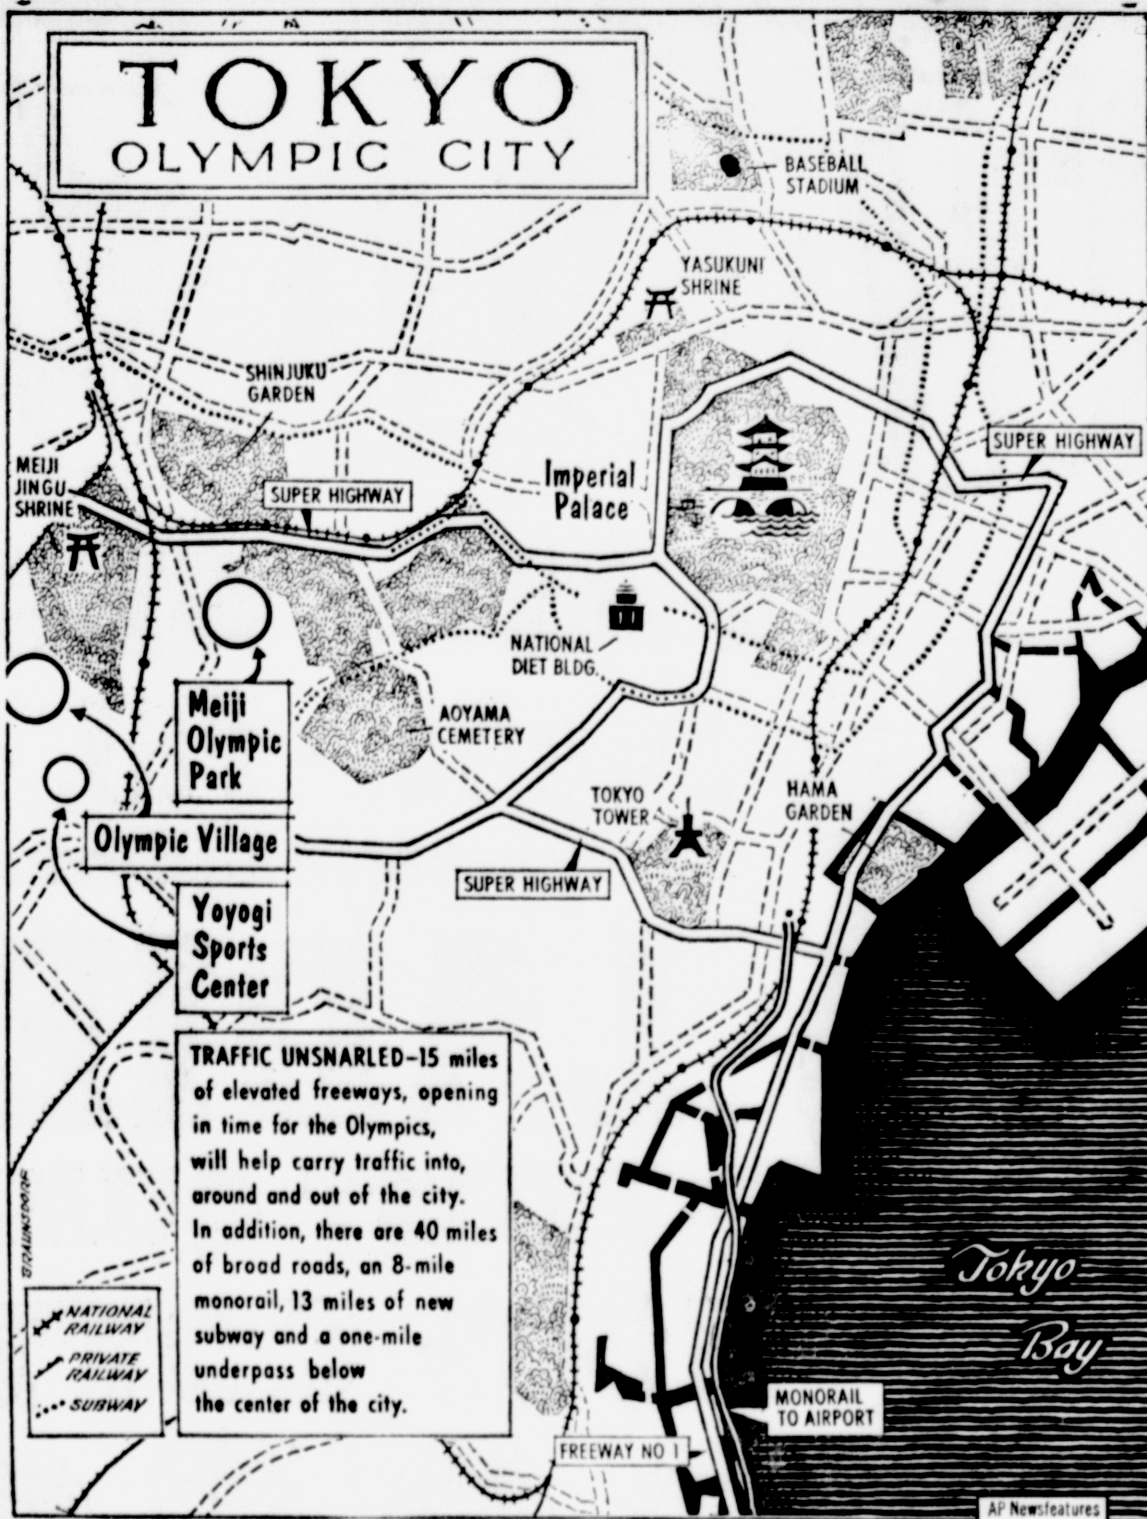

Tokyo is a city of now cleaner streets and no beggars, but one may be accosted with a whispered "Like to see private show?" — it's illegal.

MORE VOTING MACHINES TO BE USED IN PA.

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Bureau of Commissions and Elections says 10,225 voting machines will be in use in Pennsylvania on Election Day, Nov. 3.

This represents a 4 per cent increase since the presidential election of 1960 and a 2 per cent increase since the gubernatorial election of 1962.

Figures released Wednesday show that 36 counties now have districts using voting machines — a gain of one county. Chester County, which used all paper ballots in 1962, will employ 15 machines this year.

Only 13 counties have voting machines in all districts, which also was the case two years ago.

Philadelphia County leads in total number of voting machines with 3,247, an increase of seven over 1962. Beaver County, with two machines, has the smallest total.

Counties purchase their own voting machines. State law stipulates that not more than one voting machine may be acquired for fewer than 350 registered voters, and at least one machine for registration totals from 351 through 600.

COST IS FACTOR
The question of voting machine purchase is open to referendum, initiated either by citizen petition or by action of county commission.

In modern milking parlors, two men easily can process 80 cows an hour.

Ground Beef Sauerbraten

Here's a variation of that well-known European dish—Sauerbraten. Ground beef patties or balls are simmered with a spicy sauce, including crushed ginger snaps. In less than 30 minutes you'll have this ground beef specialty to set before your family.

Central Europeans serve a delicious dish featuring beef pot-roast. It's called Sauerbraten. The meat is marinated in a spicy mixture of oil, vinegar and seasonings for two to four days.

Then the beef is braised until tender. Many cooks of German ancestry make a gravy using ginger snap crumbs.

Here's a brand new variation of this dish. This Sauerbraten features ground beef. The beef is mixed with grated carrot, onion and milk is made into balls or patties.

After browning, the meat is gently simmered with a spicy mixture of condensed beef bouillon, lemon juice, ginger snaps, cloves and bay leaf.

In less than 30 minutes time you have this exciting ground beef dish to set before your family.

Of course, ground beef has long been near the top of the list of homemakers' meat preferences. Of all kinds of meat we purchase, ground beef is doubtlessly the most versatile.

This Sauerbraten is the latest word in ground beef specialties. It's fancy enough for your party table. You'll be pleased not only with its tempting appearance and delicious flavor, but with the way it fits into the family budget.

Ground Beef Sauerbraten
1½ pounds ground beef
1 cup coarsely grated carrot
1 tablespoon minced onion
¼ cup evaporated milk

½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 can (10½ ounces) condensed beef bouillon
¼ cup lemon juice
8 ginger snaps, finely crushed
4 whole cloves
1 bay leaf

Combine meat, carrot, onion, evaporated milk, salt and pepper. Shape into 18 meat balls. Brown meat on all sides in lard or drippings. Remove meat balls from pan and pour off drippings. Add bouillon, lemon juice, ginger snaps, cloves and bay leaf to pan in which meat was browned. Cook slowly, stirring occasionally, until sauce is slightly thickened. Add meat balls to sauce. Cover tightly and cook slowly for 15 minutes. Serve with hot, buttered noodles. Six servings.

COOKING IS FUN

Fish Fillets Potatoes
Green Peas w/ht Celery
Tossed Salad Olive Dressing
Ginger Snaps Beverage

OLIVE DRESSING
½ cup olive oil
3 tablespoons cider vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon each white pepper and paprika

2 tablespoons minced pimiento-stuffed olives

1 tablespoon each minced chives and parsley
In a small jar, shake together thoroughly all the ingredients. Makes about ¾ cup. Use for tossed green salad adding more salt plus seasoning salt to the salad if you like.

SATURDAY LUNCH

Thick pea soup may be freezer-stored and thinned, if you like, on re-heating.

Good Split Pea Soup
Crisp Rolls Salad Bowl
Grapes Beverage
GOOD SPLIT PEA SOUP
1 pound quick-cooking green split peas
1 ham bone and a veal knuckle
2 quarts boiling water
1 cup each chopped onion and celery
1½ cups diced carrot
1 green pepper, chopped
Salt and pepper to taste.

Wash split peas several times in cold water; drain. In a kettle bring to a boil the peas with the remaining ingredients. Boil gently until peas are cooked through — about 1½ hours. Remove bones; puree peas and vegetables. Thin soup with stock to suit taste; reheat. If not all the soup is to be served, the puree may be freezer-stored. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

SUNDAY BRUNCH

the rest for later enjoyment.

Tomato Juice Cocktail
Ham and Eggs Hot Muffins

PLUM CONSERVE
3 pounds purple plums (Italian prunes)
2 oranges
6 cups sugar
2 cups raisins, rinsed
2 cups small pecan halves

Wash, pit and quarter plums. Wash, quarter and seed oranges put through food chopper (medium blade). In a kettle, bring plums, oranges, sugar and raisins to a boil, stirring until sugar dissolves. Simmer and stir often until thick — about 2 hours. Stir in pecans. Turn into hot sterilized jars and adjust lids. Makes about 9 one-half pints.

COFFEE BREAK

Ethel K. Fain's Kipfel
Coffee

ETHEL K. FAIR'S KIPFELN
1 cup butter or margarine
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
2 egg yolks
2 envelopes active dry yeast
¾ cup warm water
¾ cup evaporated milk, undiluted and at room temperature

1 tablespoon white vinegar
3 cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
Melted butter, brown sugar, cinnamon, chopped nuts and white raisins.

Cream butter and granulated sugar; beat in egg yolks. Dissolve yeast in warm water and add. Stir together evaporated milk and vinegar; beat in. Add flour and salt; beat in until smooth. Divide into 3 portions. Roll out one portion into an 8-inch round; brush with melted butter; sprinkle with brown sugar, cinnamon, nuts and raisins; cut into 8 wedges; roll up each wedge from wide end to point. Form into crescent shape. Roll out and form remaining portions of dough the same way. Place a few inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees oven) until light brown — about 35 minutes.

Petits Fours Pink Punch

PINK PUNCH
1 bottle (1 quart) sauterne
1 bottle (4½ pint) rose
¾ cup of cognac
1 package (10 ounces) frozen sliced strawberries
Ice ring
Chill the sauterne and rose. Shortly before serving, pour the wines into a punch bowl with the cognac. Add the strawberries and allow the berries to start thawing; stir well. Add the ice ring and serve. Makes 12 servings.

Note: To make ice ring, pour cold water into a 3-cup ring-shape or other mold; freeze until firm.

PORCH DINNER

Chili Spare Ribs Rice
Mixed Green Salad

Fresh Fruit Beverage

CHILI SPARERIBS

1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1 tablespoon sugar
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons chili powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon dry mustard
½ teaspoon celery salt
½ teaspoon garlic salt
Cayenne to taste
1 tablespoon instant minced onion.

3 pounds spareribs
Mix all ingredients except ribs. Heat but do not boil. Do not cut ribs apart; place on a rack in a 15½ by 10½ by 1-inch jelly roll pan. Bake in a very hot (500 degrees) over 15 minutes. Reduce heat to moderate (350 degrees) and bake 1½ hours or until very tender, turning and brushing at 15 minute intervals until ribs are done. If you like them crisp, place under broiler 3 to 5 minutes to crisp. With scissors cut ribs into 2 to 3 rib servings. Spoon any sauce left over the ribs. Makes 6 servings.

CONGRESS IS BEST WAY TO WHITE HOUSE

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — It used to be that the best springboard to the White House was the governor's mansion. But apparently no more.

Now it looks as if the route to the presidency goes through Congress, especially in the Senate.

Almost to a man the politicians here see significance in the fact that the 50 states failed again this year to produce a governor capable of more than a futile try for the presidential or vice-presidential nominations of either major party, and some who were viewed as likely candidates refused to run at all.

Many politicians believe that "big government" centralized in Washington hogs the political limelight to an extent that governors have little or no chance any more to make a winning splash in national political waters.

Not since Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1932 has anyone emerged directly from a governorship — New York's — to win the presidency. Not since 1952, when the then Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois did it, has anyone stepped directly from a governor's mansion to capture either the Republican or Democratic presidential nomination. Stevenson was defeated that year as the Democratic standard-bearer and again in 1956.

NOT SINCE COOLIDGE And not since Republican Calvin Coolidge in 1920 has a governor won the vice presidency. He was governor of Massachusetts, and advanced to the presidency.

This year, of course, it's President Johnson, a former Senate majority leader, heading the Democratic ticket with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota his running mate, while Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona carries the Republican standard with Rep. William E. Miller of New York as his vice-presidential teammate.

Four years ago Sen. John F. Kennedy, D-Mass., won the presidency, and Johnson, the a senator from Texas, took the vice presidency, over the challenge of Republican Richard M. Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge, both former senators.

SEE MANY FACTORS Nixon was senator from California when he won the vice presidency in 1952 as running mate of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and they were re-elected in 1956.

Harry S. Truman was a senator when he was elected vice president in 1944.

Two key Senate figures spoke about the current situation in separate interviews.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., the Senate majority leader, thought there were many factors in Congress members' success and governors' lack of it in seeking top spots on the two parties' tickets.

BLAME DEMOCRATS

Mansfield said one element is the fact that governors find themselves so tied up in vital and complex state affairs that they just lack time and opportunity to make a name for themselves on national issues as men of presidential timber.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., the minority leader, blamed what he called "downgrading of the states" under Democratic governors' showing.

"Ever since Franklin D. Roosevelt," Dirksen said, "there has been an increasing concentration of power in Washington and a downgrading of the states, both in philosophy and practice."

Damson plums get their name from the city of Damascus. The small, nearly round plums, are prized for jam and plum butter.

A Lovelier You

SUCCESSORIES. From the ground up — from shoes to scarves — there's a closer than ever alliance between a costume and its finishing touches. Successful accessories are now an extension of fashion, a kind of fourth dimension.

For example, the swinging pleated skirt gains in zing via textured stockings and suede oxfords. But were it worn with sheers and nondescript pumps, half the excitement would be lost.

Just so, there's a just-right touch for every facet of fashion. To report a few of the best day-time ideas:

- Sling backs for street attire, in quiet shades and topped with contrasting fabrics — suede with reptile. Kid shell pumps in pale to passionate colors for late-day. Slim boots, ankle-length or knee-high to pace casuals. Rainy day stretch spats.

- Sheer stockings in deep, winter garden shades. Casual socks, stockings and tights in sheer to heavy textures, brightly and deeply colored. Kookie tights — wild and for kicks.

- The skinny leather belt to wear high or low on skinny coats and dresses.

- Gloves — cuffed for long sleeves and crushed to meet shorter sleeves; fun textures like fake alligator and elegant leathers like suede.

- For gad-about, shoulder bags sized to fit into the waist. Small quilted bags for "lady" clothes.

- Neckline fills—big crepe or satin bows, turtle gilets, fur cowls.
- Last touch—a fob, chain or pendant stolen from the Victorian. A dark red carnation, courtesy Chanel.

10 NIMRODS HEAD NORTH

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Dressed in authentic pioneer costumes and bearing greetings from Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, 10 long rifle sharpshooters will leave for Pennsylvania today.

The Kentucky nimrods will be defending the long rifle that now hangs in Breathitt's office. They won the right to hang it there last year by outshooting some Pennsylvania long rifle enthusiasts.

The first of two matches this year will be Saturday at the Daniel Boone Homestead State Park near Reading, Pa. The second round will be Oct. 10 at Barboursville, Ky.

The matches grew out of a friendly feud over the making of the long rifle. The rifle was built in Pennsylvania, but the Kentuckians claim it should be called the Kentucky Long Rifle, saying it won prominence in their state.
